BE it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :

Control of
National Debt
Commissioners over special investments
business.

1.—(1) Every trustee savings bank which carries on the business of making special investments shall so far as respects that business be subject to the control of the National Debt Commissioners and shall comply with any directions which may from time to time be given by the Commissioners with respect to that business.

If a bank to which any such directions are given neglects or refuses to comply therewith, the Commissioners may themselves take the necessary steps for giving effect thereto, and for that purpose may do all such things and exercise all such powers as may be done and exercised by the trustees, managers, and other officers of the bank.

(2) Without prejudice to the general power of control hereinbefore given to the Commissioners, the following provisions shall have effect with respect to the special investments business of a trustee savings bank :—

- (a) No money received for investment shall be invested, and no securities held on account of special investments shall be sold, except with the approval of the Commissioners :
- (b) No change shall be made in the rate of interest allowed to depositors in respect of special investments except with the approval of the Commissioners :
- (c) The amount to be expended by the bank for expenses of management on account of the special investments business shall not exceed such an amount as may be allowed by the Commissioners :
- (d) No money received for investment shall be invested except so as to become repayable not later than the expiration of one year, or, if the money is invested in Government securities, three years, from the date of the investment, or so as to be repayable on six months' or some shorter notice :
- (e) There shall be transmitted to the Commissioners, together with the statement required to be transmitted to them under section fifty-five of the Trustee Savings Banks Act, 1863, a valuation of the securities held by the bank on account of special investments, and for the purpose of the valuation the value of those securities shall be calculated according to the current market price at the date of the valuation, or, in the case of securities for which there is at that date no current market price, shall be taken to be such an amount as the Commissioners shall fix, having regard to the date of repayment of, and to the rate of interest payable in respect of, the securities.

2.—(1) For the purpose of providing for any deficiency which may arise in respect of special investments made by trustee savings banks, there shall be established a guarantee fund under the control of the Commissioners.

Establishment of guarantee fund to meet deficiencies on special investments accounts

(2) The guarantee fund shall consist of—

- (a) The reserves both in respect of general business and of special investments of all trustee savings banks which make special investments; and
- (b) Such part of the separate surplus fund as stands to the credit of closed trustee savings banks; and for the purpose aforesaid the reserves of every such trustee savings bank shall be at the disposal of the Commissioners, and the bank shall comply with any directions given by the Commissioners with respect to those reserves for the purpose of giving effect to the provisions of this section.

(3) If on any valuation of the assets belonging to any bank on account of special investments it appears that there is a deficiency, that deficiency shall, in the event of the bank being closed or wound up, or discontinuing, with the consent of the Commissioners, the business of making special investments, be a charge on and be made good out of the guarantee fund, as follows:—

- (a) Recourse shall be had in the first instance to the amount standing to the credit of the guarantee fund in respect of the reserves of the bank in question and, so far as that amount is insufficient for the purpose, to the amount standing to the credit of the guarantee fund in respect of the reserves of other banks and to the part of the separate surplus fund standing to the credit of the guarantee fund pari passu; and

(4) So much of paragraph (e) of section ten of the Savings Banks Act, 1891, as enacts that the assets of a bank in respect of ordinary deposits are not to be liable for any loss or deficiency in respect of special investments shall cease to have effect so far as relates to such assets of the bank as are reserves within the meaning of this Act.

Interest on separate surplus fund.
43 & 44 Vict.
c. 36.

3.—(1) The amount standing to the credit of a trustee savings bank in the separate surplus fund which accrued before the commencement of the Savings Banks Act, 1880, shall, as from the twentieth day of November, nineteen hundred and seventeen, carry interest at the same rate and in the same manner as any other sums standing to the credit of the bank.

(2) Section four of the Savings Banks Act, 1891 (which provides for the expenses of the Inspection Committee), shall have effect as if the words “so much of the separate surplus fund” which has accrued under section twenty-nine of the Savings Banks Act, 1863, as stands to the credit of closed trustee savings banks” were substituted for the words “the separate surplus fund which has accrued under section twenty-nine of the Savings Banks Act, 1863, and which does not carry interest to the trustees of savings banks.”

1. Subject to the provisions of this section, subsection (3) of section one of the Small Holding Colonies Act, 1916 (hereinafter referred to as “the principal Act”), which limits the area of the land which may be acquired by the Board of Agriculture and Fisheries for the purposes of that section, shall have effect as if forty-five thousand acres were therein substituted for four thousand five hundred acres, twenty thousand acres for two thousand acres, and sixty thousand acres for six thousand acres, provided that for the purposes of the acquisition, equipment, and settlement of the area hereby authorised to be acquired by the Board of Agriculture and Fisheries, the Board may, as respects any county, with the consent of the council of that county, employ that council as their agents, and vest in them all or any of the powers hereby or by the principal Act conferred upon them, in addition to those vested in such council by virtue of the Small Holdings and Allotments Act, 1908, and paragraph (c) of section eleven of the principal Act, which limits the area of the land which may be acquired by the Board of Agriculture for Scotland for the purposes of the said section one, shall have effect as if twenty thousand acres were therein substituted for two thousand acres :

Increase in area of land which may be acquired for

Provided also that no portion of the additional land authorised by this Act to be acquired by the Board of Agriculture and Fisheries shall be so acquired except after consultation with the chairman of the council of the county in which the land proposed to be acquired is situate, or with a committee of that council.

CHAPTER 27.

An Act to grant Money for the purpose of certain Local Loans out of the Local Loans Fund, and for other purposes relating to Local Loans. [8th August 1918.]

BE it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :

Grants for public works.

1.—(1) For the purpose of local loans, there may be issued by the National Debt Commissioners the following sums, namely:—

- (a) For the purpose of loans by the Public Works Loan Commissioners, any sum or sums not exceeding in the whole the sum of one million pounds;
- (b) For the purpose of loans by the Commissioners of Public Works in Ireland, any sum or sums not exceeding in the whole the sum of two hundred and fifty thousand pounds.

(2) The sums so issued shall be issued during a period ending on the day on which a further Act granting money for the purposes of those loans comes into operation, and in accordance with the provisions of the National Debt and Local Loans Act, 1887.

50 & 51 Vict.
c. 16.

Certain debts not to be reckoned as assets of local loans fund.

2. Whereas it is expedient that the principal of the several local loans specified in the tables contained in Part I., Part II., and Part III. respectively of the Schedule to this Act should, to the extent specified in the last column of those Tables, not be reckoned as assets of the local loans fund established under the National Debt and Local Loans Act, 1887, and that the several sums specified in the second column of the Table contained in Part IV. of the said Schedule should not be reckoned as assets of the said fund:

Now, therefore, the principal of the said loans to the extent aforesaid and the said sums shall be written off from the assets of the local loans fund, and the provisions of section fifteen of the said Act shall, so far as applicable, apply thereto.

Remission of
principal and interest in respect of Eyemouth
Harbour loan.

1 Edw. 7. c. 35.

3. Whereas in pursuance of an agreement made in the year eighteen hundred and ninety-two the sum of ten thousand pounds was advanced by the Public Works Loan Commissioners to the Eyemouth Harbour Trustees on the security of the harbour revenues with the collateral security of the Fishery Board for Scotland:

And whereas by an arrangement confirmed by section three of the Public Works Loans Act, 1901, the liability of the Eyemouth Harbour Trustees in respect of the said loan was extinguished without prejudice to the liability of the Fishery Board for Scotland to repay the said loan, and, in consequence thereof, the said collateral security is the sole security for the repayment of the said loan:

And whereas the terms of the said collateral security are embodied in a memorandum of agreement between the Secretary for Scotland and the Public Works Loan Commissioners, dated the eleventh day of March eighteen hundred and ninety-two, whereby a portion of the surplus herring brand fees, as defined in clause three of the said memorandum, was pledged in security for the repayment of the said loan with interest by the instalments and at the times mentioned in the security given by the Eyemouth Harbour Trustees for the said loan, and it was provided that the said portion of the surplus herring brand fees of any one year should only be applicable to the repayment of the one-fiftieth part of principal and interest on outstanding principal falling due under the security for the said loan in the same year, and should not be applicable to the repayment of arrears of principal :

And whereas the said portion of the surplus herring brand fees, so pledged as aforesaid, was in the year ending the thirty-first day of March nineteen hundred and eighteen insufficient to discharge in full the instalment of principal with interest which fell due under the security for the said loan in that year, and the principal sum of two hundred pounds, with interest amounting to one hundred and sixty-two pounds fourteen shillings and sixpence, now remains unpaid, and under the terms of the said memorandum of agreement is irrecoverable :

Now, therefore, the said principal sum of two hundred pounds shall be extinguished, and the said arrears of interest amounting to one hundred and sixty-two pounds fourteen shillings and sixpence shall be remitted.

4. For the purpose of removing doubts it is hereby declared that the power of the Treasury under section one of the Public Works Loans Act, 1897, as amended by section four of the Public Works Loans Act, 1917, to fix rates of interest on loans made out of the local loans fund otherwise than on the security of local rates includes (subject always to the provisions of the said sections) a power to fix rates of interest differing from the rates fixed for loans made out of that fund on the security of local rates, and a power to fix different rates of interest in respect of different loans, and that in fixing the rate of interest the Treasury may take into account the nature and value of the security for the loan.

Explanation of effect of s. 4, of 7 & 8 Geo 5. c. 32. 60 & 61 Vict c. 51.

5. This Act may be cited as the Public Works Loans Act, 1918. Short title.

8 Edw. 7. c. 69.

- (b) by a firm or individual, if the business carried on is one with respect to which, if a state of war still continued, an order for the winding up thereof could have been made under section one of the principal Act;

and if any person is concerned in carrying on any such business in contravention of this provision he shall be guilty of a misdemeanour punishable in like manner and subject to the like provisions as in the case of a misdemeanour under section one of the Trading with the Enemy Act, 1914, and that section shall apply accordingly.

4 & 5 Geo. 5. c. 87.

(2) Where it appears to the Board of Trade that any banking business is carried on in contravention of this section the Board of Trade shall order the business to be wound up, and for that purpose the provisions of section one of the principal Act and the provisions of this Act which relate to orders made under that section shall with the necessary adaptations apply.

making orders
under s 1 of

Provided that where such an order has been made and any sum has been paid to the custodian as representing the share of any such partner, the court may, on the application of the Board of Trade, order the custodian to pay to the controller appointed under the order the whole or any part of that sum to be dealt with by him as part of the assets of the firm.

(2) Where it appears to the Board of Trade that any club or other undertaking, not being a business, carried on in the United Kingdom by any person or body of persons incorporated or unincorporated, is or was at any time since the outbreak of war, by reason of the enemy nationality or association of the members of that body, or any of them, or otherwise, carried on wholly or mainly for the benefit of, or under the control of, enemy subjects, the Board of Trade may and shall be deemed always to have had power to make an order requiring the undertaking to be wound up.

(3) Where any person, firm, or company has ceased to carry on business, and it appears to the Board of Trade that the business whilst carried on was by reason of the enemy nationality or enemy association of that person, firm or company, or of the members of that firm or company, or otherwise, carried on wholly or mainly for the benefit of, or under the control of, enemy subjects, or persons who subsequently became enemy subjects, the Board of Trade may and shall be deemed always to have had power to make an order for the realisation and distribution of the assets of the business.

- (d) the assets of the company may be distributed without making any provision for claims by enemies except those which are disclosed in the books of the company or of which the liquidator has otherwise received notice, and as respects claims by enemies of which notice has been so received the liquidator may pay to the custodian the dividends on any such claim without requiring a proof to be lodged in respect thereof.

Enforcement

9 Edw. 7. c. 22.

(2) The Minister of Labour (in this Act referred to as "the Minister") may make a special order applying the principal Act to any specified trade to which it does not at the time apply if he is of opinion that no adequate machinery exists for the effective regulation of wages throughout the trade, and that accordingly, having regard to the rates of wages prevailing in the trade, or any part of the trade, it is expedient that the principal Act should apply to that trade.

(3) If at any time the Minister is of opinion that the conditions of employment in any trade to which the principal Act applies have been so altered as to render the application of the principal Act to the trade unnecessary, he may make a special order withdrawing that trade from the operation of the principal Act.

(4) If the Minister is of opinion that it is desirable to alter or amend the description of any of the trades specified in the Schedule to the principal Act, he may make a special order altering or amending the said Schedule accordingly.

(5) Any Act confirming a provisional order made in pursuance of section one of the principal Act may be repealed or varied by a special order.

(6) Section one of the principal Act shall cease to have effect.

Provisions as to special orders.

2.—(1) Every special order shall without confirmation by Parliament have effect as if enacted in this Act and may be varied or revoked by a subsequent special order.

(2) The provisions contained in the First Schedule to this Act shall have effect with respect to the procedure for making special orders.

(3) Where the Minister makes any special order he shall publish it in such manner as he thinks best adapted for bringing it to the notice of all persons affected thereby, and the order shall come into operation on the date on which it is so published or on such later date as is specified in that behalf in the order.

(4) Every special order shall be laid before each House of Parliament forthwith, and if an Address is presented to His Majesty by either House within the next subsequent forty days on which that House has sat after the order has been so laid, praying that the order may be annulled, His Majesty may annul the order, and it shall thenceforth be void, but without prejudice to the validity of anything previously done thereunder or to the power of making a fresh order.

Amendments of principal Act with respect to the fixing, &c., of minimum rates.

3.—(1) The following provision shall be substituted for the first paragraph of subsection (1) of section four of the principal Act (which relates to the duties and powers of Trade Boards with respect to minimum rates of wages):—

"Every Trade Board shall, subject to the provisions of this section, fix a minimum rate of wages for time-work in their trade (in this Act referred to as 'a general minimum time-rate') and may also fix for their trade—

“(a) A general minimum rate of wages for piece-work (in this Act referred to as 'a general minimum piece-rate');

“(b) A minimum time-rate (which shall not be higher than the general minimum time-rate) to apply in the case of workers employed on piece-work for the purpose of securing to such workers a minimum rate of remuneration on a time-work basis (in this Act referred to as 'a guaranteed time-rate');

“(c) A minimum rate (whether a time-rate or a piece-rate) to apply, in substitution for the minimum rate which would otherwise be applicable, in respect of hours worked by a worker in any week or on any day in excess of the number of hours declared by the Trade Board to be the normal number of hours of work per week or for that day in the trade (in this Act referred to as 'an overtime rate');

“Any of the minimum rates aforesaid may be fixed so as to apply universally to the trade or so as to apply to any special process in the work of the trade or to any special area, or to any class of workers in the trade, or to any class of workers in any special process or in any special area.”

(2) The power of a trade board under the principal Act to fix a minimum rate of wages shall include the power to fix a series of minimum rates to come into operation successively on the expiration of specified periods, and the power to vary a minimum rate shall include the power so to vary a rate that the variation shall be operative only during a specified period.

(3) The expression “minimum time-rate” in the principal Act and in this Act includes a time-rate of any kind fixed under the provisions of the principal Act.

(4) Where a Trade Board fix a minimum rate so as to apply to any class of workers in a trade they may, if they think it expedient so to do, attach to the fixing of the minimum rate the following conditions; that is to say,—

(a) A condition that workers who are members of the class must be the holders of certificates to that effect issued by the Trade Board; and

(b) If the class consists of persons who are learning the trade, such conditions as the Trade Board think necessary for securing the effective instruction of those persons in the trade.

If any condition so attached is not complied with in the case of any worker, he shall be deemed not to be a member of the class, and where a condition with respect to the holding of a certificate is so attached, the Trade Board shall issue a certificate to a person applying therefor on production of evidence to their satisfaction that the applicant is a member of the class.

(5) Before fixing, cancelling, or varying any minimum rate of wages, not being a special minimum piece-rate, the Trade Board shall give notice of the rate which they propose to fix, or of their proposal to cancel the rate, or of the proposed variation in the rate, as the case may be, and shall consider any objections to the proposal which may be lodged with them within two months from the date of the notice:

Provided that where a rate has not been effective for a period of at least six months, the Trade Board shall not, without the consent of the Minister to be given on an application made to him by the Board for the purpose, give notice of a proposal to vary the rate, and the Minister shall not give his consent to such an application unless he is satisfied that the special circumstances of the case render it desirable that such notice should be given immediately.

(6) Where a Trade Board fix a special minimum piece-rate under subsection (5) of section four of the principal Act, or cancel or vary any rate fixed under the said subsection, they shall give to the employer notice of the fixing, cancellation, or variation, as the case may be.

(7) Where notice of a proposal to fix, cancel, or vary a minimum rate has been duly given by a Trade Board before the date of the commencement of this Act and the Board have not before that date proceeded to fix, cancel, or vary the rate, the notice shall have effect as though this Act had been in force on the date on which the notice was given and the notice had been duly given thereunder, except that objections may be lodged with the Board for a period of three months from the date of the notice.

Provisions as to orders for confirming minimum rate or cancellation or variation of

4.—(1) Where a Trade Board have fixed any minimum rate of wages, not being a special minimum piece-rate, or have cancelled or varied any such rate, they shall forthwith send notification thereof to the Minister, and the notification may include a statement as to the date as from which the Board suggest that the rate, or the cancellation or variation, should become effective.

(2) The Minister on receipt of a notification under this section with respect to any matter shall forthwith take the matter into his consideration, and, unless he thinks it necessary to refer the matter back to the Trade Board for reconsideration, shall, as soon as may be, make an order confirming the rate, or the cancellation or variation, as the case may be.

In any case where an order is to be made by the Minister under the foregoing provision he shall, unless in his opinion the special circumstances of the case make it necessary or desirable to postpone the making of the order, make the order within one month from the date on which the notification from the Trade Board is received.

(3) The Minister shall as soon as may be after he has made an order under this section send notification thereof to the Trade Board concerned, and the Trade Board shall, as soon as may be after receiving the notification, give notice of the making of the order and the contents thereof.

(4) Any such minimum rate as aforesaid, or the cancellation or variation of any such rate, shall become effective as from the date specified in that behalf in the order by which it is confirmed.

The date to be so specified shall be a date subsequent to the date of the order, and where as respects any employer who pays wages at intervals not exceeding seven days the date so specified does not correspond with the beginning of the period for which wages are paid by that employer, the rate shall become effective as from the beginning of the next such period following the date specified in the order.

(5) Sections five and seven of the principal Act (which relate respectively to orders giving obligatory effect to minimum rates of wages and to the operation of a minimum rate which has not been made obligatory) are hereby repealed :

Provided that where at the commencement of this Act any minimum rate fixed by a Trade Board has a limited operation under the provisions of the said section seven—

- (a) the provisions of subsections (2), (3), and (4) of this section shall apply as though the Trade Board had fixed the said rate on the date of the commencement of this Act, and a notification thereof had been received by the Minister on that date ; and
- (b) If the Minister does not refer the rate back to the Trade Board for reconsideration it shall, pending the making by the Minister of an order confirming the rate, continue to have a limited operation in the same manner as if this Act had not been passed ; and
- (c) If the Minister refers the rate back, he may as he thinks fit direct either that the rate shall cease to have any operation or that it shall continue to have a limited operation for such period as he may specify.

5.—(1) Where an offence for which an employer is by virtue of the principal Act liable to a fine has in fact been committed by some agent of the employer or other person, that agent or other person shall be liable to be proceeded against for the offence in the same manner as if he were the employer, and either together with, or before or after the conviction of, the employer, and shall be liable on conviction to the same punishment as that to which the employer is liable.

(2) Where an employer who is charged with an offence against the principal Act proves to the satisfaction of the court that he has used due diligence to enforce the execution of the principal Act, and that the offence was in fact committed by his agent or some other person without his knowledge, consent, or connivance, he shall, in the event of the conviction of that agent or other person for the offence, be exempt from any fine in respect of the offence, without prejudice, however, to the power of the court under subsection (2) of section six of the principal Act (which relates to the penalty for not paying wages in accordance with the minimum rate) to adjudge him to pay any sum which appears to the court to be due to the person employed on account of wages.

(3) Where the immediate employer of any worker to whom a minimum rate of wages applies is himself in the employment of some other person and that worker is employed on the premises of that other person, that other person shall for the purposes of the provisions of the principal Act relating to the penalty for not paying wages in accordance with the minimum rate be deemed to be the employer of the worker jointly with the immediate employer.

(4) The following provision shall be inserted at the end of subsection (1) of section six of the principal Act:—

“In the foregoing provision, the expression ‘deductions’ includes deductions for or in respect of any matter whatsoever (other than deductions under the National Insurance Act, 1911, as amended by any subsequent enactments or deductions authorised by any Act to be made from wages in respect of contributions to any superannuation or other provident fund), and notwithstanding that they are deductions which may lawfully be made from wages under the provisions of the Truck Acts, 1831 to 1896, and where any payment being a payment authorised to be received by an employer under section one, section two, or section three of the Truck Act, 1896, is made by any employed person to his employer, the employer shall, for the purposes of the foregoing provision, be deemed to have deducted that amount from wages.”

(5) The following provisions shall be substituted for subsections (3) and (4) of section six of the principal Act:—

“(3) If a Trade Board are satisfied that any worker employed or desiring to be employed in any branch of a trade to which a general minimum time-rate, a guaranteed time-rate, or a time-work overtime rate is applicable is affected by any infirmity or physical injury which renders him incapable of earning that minimum rate and, where the worker is not already employed on piece-work, are of opinion that the case cannot suitably be met by employing him on piece-work, the Trade Board may, if they think fit, grant to the worker, subject to such conditions, if any, as they prescribe, a permit exempting the employment of the worker from the provisions of this Act relating to the payment of wages at less than the minimum rate, and while the permit is in force the employer shall not be liable for paying wages to the worker at a rate less than the minimum rate so long as the conditions prescribed by the Trade Board on the grant of the permit are complied with.

c. 44

"A Trade Board may, if they think fit, delegate their powers under this subsection to a committee consisting of such number of persons, being members of the Board, as the Board may think fit, so, however, that the members of the Board on the committee representing employers and the members of the Board on the committee representing workers shall be in equal proportions.

"(4) It shall be the duty of every employer in a trade to which a minimum rate is applicable, to keep such records of wages as are necessary to show that the provisions of this Act are being complied with as respects persons in his employment, and if he fails to do so he shall be liable on summary conviction in respect of each offence to a fine not exceeding two pounds, and also to a fine not exceeding one pound for every day during which the default continues after conviction.

"On any prosecution of a person for failing to pay wages at not less than the minimum rate, it shall lie on that person to prove that he has not paid wages at less than the minimum rate."

6. The following section shall be substituted for section eight of the principal Act (which relates to the case of persons employed on piece-work where a general minimum time-rate but no general minimum piece-rate has been fixed):—

of s. 8 of principal Act.*

"(1) An employer shall, in cases where persons are employed on piece-work and a general minimum time-rate but no general minimum piece-rate has been fixed, be deemed to pay wages at less than the minimum rate—

(a) in cases where a special minimum piece-rate has been fixed under the provisions of this Act for persons employed by that employer, if the rate of wages is less than that special minimum piece-rate; and

(b) in cases where a special minimum piece-rate has not been so fixed, unless he shows that the piece-rate of wages paid would yield, in the circumstances of the case, to an ordinary worker at least the same amount of money as the basis rate.

"(2) For the purpose of this section the expression 'basis rate' means the general minimum time-rate or, where a rate (in this Act referred to as a 'piece-work basis time-rate') has been fixed by the Trade Board for the purpose of being substituted for the general minimum time-rate as the basis rate, the rate so fixed.

A Trade Board may fix a piece-work basis time-rate in any case in which, having regard to all the circumstances of the case, they are of opinion that the general minimum time-rate does not form a proper basis for the purposes of paragraph (b) of subsection (1) of this section, and a piece-work basis time-rate may be higher or lower than the general minimum time-rate and may be fixed so as to apply universally to the trade or so as to apply to any special process in the work of the trade or to any special area, or to any class of workers in the trade or to any class of workers in any special process or in any special area."

Employers not to receive premiums where minimum rates in force.

7.—(1) Where a worker in any trade, being a person to whom a minimum rate of wages fixed by a Trade Board applies, is an apprentice or learner, it shall not be lawful for his employer to receive directly or indirectly from him, or on his behalf or on his account, any payment by way of premium:

Provided that nothing in the foregoing provision shall apply to any such payment duly made in pursuance of any instrument of apprenticeship not later than four weeks after the commencement of the employment.

(2) If any employer acts in contravention of this provision, he shall be liable on summary conviction in respect of each offence to a fine not exceeding twenty pounds, and the court may by the conviction, in addition to imposing a fine, adjudge him to repay to the worker or other person by whom the payment was made the sum improperly received by way of premium.

Worker waiting for work on employer's premises to be deemed to be employed.

8. For the purpose of calculating the amount of the wages payable in the case of a worker employed on any work for which a minimum rate of wages has been fixed under the principal Act, the worker shall be deemed to have been employed during all the time during which he was present on the premises of the employer, unless the employer proves that he was so present without the employer's consent express or implied, or that he was so present for some purpose unconnected with his work and other than that of waiting for work to be given to him to perform, and in the case of a worker employed on piece-work shall be deemed during any time during which he was so present and was not doing piece-work to have been employed at the general minimum time-rate applicable to workers of the class to which he belongs:

Provided that—

- (a) where a worker resides on the premises of the employer he shall not be deemed to be employed during any time during which he is present on the premises by reason only of the fact that he is so resident; and
- (b) a worker while present during normal meal times in a room or place in which no work is being done shall be deemed to be present for a purpose unconnected with his work.

Miscellaneous provisions with respect to legal proceedings.

9.—(1) Where an employer has been convicted under section six of the principal Act for failing to pay wages at not less than the minimum rate to any worker, then, if notice of intention so to do has been served with the summons, warrant, or complaint, evidence may be given of any failure on the part of the employer to pay wages at not less than the minimum rate to that worker at any time during the two years immediately preceding the date on which the information was laid or the complaint was served, and on proof of the failure the court may order the employer to pay such sum as in the opinion of the court represents the difference between the amount which, having regard to the provisions of the principal Act, ought properly to have been paid to the worker by way of wages during those years and the amount actually so paid.

(2) Where it appears to a Trade Board, or to any officer appointed under the principal Act or to any officer of any Government Department for the time being assisting in carrying the principal Act into effect, that any sum is due by an employer to a worker by reason of the fact that wages have been paid to that worker at less than the minimum rate applicable, and that it is not possible to recover the sum so appearing to be due, or some part of that sum, by means of proceedings under section six of the principal Act, the Trade Board, or that officer, if he is authorised in that behalf by special or general directions of the Minister, may, if it appears expedient so to do by reason of the refusal or neglect of the worker to take the necessary proceedings, on behalf of and in the name of the worker institute civil proceedings before any court of competent jurisdiction for the recovery of the said sum:

Provided always that the court before which any such civil proceedings are instituted by a Trade Board or by any such officer as aforesaid shall have the same power to make an order for the payment of costs by that Board or officer as if that Board or officer were a party to the proceedings.

(3) It shall be no objection to the competency of a person to give evidence as a witness in proceedings in Scotland under the principal Act that the proceedings are brought at the instance of or have been instituted by that person, or are prosecuted or conducted by him.

1. The following sections shall be substituted for section seven of the British Nationality and Status of Aliens Act, 1914 (hereinafter referred to as "the principal Act"), which relates to the revocation of certificates of naturalization:—

Substitution of provisions for section 7 of the principal Act. 4 & 5 Geo. 5. c. 17.

"7.—(1) Where the Secretary of State is satisfied that a certificate of naturalization granted by him has been obtained by false representation or fraud, or by concealment of material circumstances, or that the person to whom the certificate is granted has shown himself by act or speech to be disaffected or disloyal to His Majesty, the Secretary of State shall by order revoke the certificate.

Revocation of certificate of naturalization.

"(2) Without prejudice to the foregoing provisions the Secretary of State shall by order revoke a certificate of naturalization granted by him in any case in which he is satisfied that the person to whom the certificate was granted either—

- (a) has during any war in which His Majesty is engaged unlawfully traded or communicated with the enemy or with the subject of an enemy state, or been engaged in or associated with any business which is to his knowledge carried on in such manner as to assist the enemy in such war; or
- (b) has within five years of the date of the grant of the certificate been sentenced by any court in His Majesty's dominions to imprisonment for a term of not less than twelve months, or to a term of penal servitude, or to a fine of not less than one hundred pounds; or

- (c) was not of good character at the date of the grant of the certificate ; or
- (d) has since the date of the grant of the certificate been for a period of not less than seven years ordinarily resident out of His Majesty's dominions otherwise than as a representative of a British subject, firm, or company carrying on business, or an institution established, in His Majesty's dominions, or in the service of the Crown, and has not maintained substantial connection with His Majesty's dominions ; or
- (e) remains according to the law of a state at war with His Majesty a subject of that state ; and that (in any case) the continuance of the certificate is not conducive to the public good.

"(3) The Secretary of State may, if he thinks fit, before making an order under this section refer the case for such inquiry as is hereinafter specified, and in any case to which subsection (1) or paragraph (a), (c), or (e) of subsection (2) of this section applies, the Secretary of State shall, by notice given to or sent to the last-known address of the holder of the certificate, give him an opportunity of claiming that the case be referred for such inquiry, and if the holder so claims in accordance with the notice the Secretary of State shall refer the case for inquiry accordingly.

"(4) An inquiry under this section shall be held by a committee constituted for the purpose by the Secretary of State, presided over by a person (appointed by the Secretary of State with the approval of the Lord Chancellor) who holds or has held high judicial office, and shall be conducted in such manner as the Secretary of State may direct :

"Provided that any such inquiry may, if the Secretary of State thinks fit, instead of being held as aforesaid be held by the High Court, and the practice and procedure on any inquiry so held shall be regulated by rules of court.

“(6) Where the Secretary of State revokes a certificate of naturalization, the revocation shall have effect from such date as the Secretary of State may direct, and thereupon the certificate shall be given up and cancelled, and any person refusing or neglecting to give up his certificate shall be liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding one hundred pounds.

“7A.—(1) Where a certificate of naturalization is revoked the Secretary of State may by order direct that the wife and minor children (or any of them) of the person whose certificate is revoked shall cease to be British subjects, and any such person shall thereupon become an alien; but except where the Secretary of State directs as aforesaid, the nationality of the wife and minor children of the person whose certificate is revoked shall not be affected by the revocation, and they shall remain British subjects :

revocation of certificate of naturalization.

“(a) it shall be lawful for the wife of any such person within six months after the date of the order of revocation to make a declaration of alienage, and thereupon she and any minor children of her husband and herself shall cease to be British subjects and shall become aliens; and

“(b) the Secretary of State shall not make any such order as aforesaid in the case of a wife who was at birth a British subject, unless he is satisfied that if she had held a certificate of naturalization in her own right the certificate could properly have been revoked under this Act, and the provisions of this Act as to referring cases for inquiry shall apply to the making of any such order as they apply to the revocation of a certificate.

“(2) The provisions of this section shall, as respects persons affected thereby, have effect in substitution for any other provisions of this Act as to the effect upon the wife and children of any person where the person ceases to be a British subject and such other provisions shall accordingly not apply in any such case.

“(3) Where a certificate of naturalization is revoked the former holder thereof shall be regarded as an alien and as a subject of the state to which he belonged at the time the certificate was granted."

(5) In section ten (which relates to the national status of married women) at the end of the section there shall be added the words "and provided that where an alien is a subject of a state at war with His Majesty it shall be lawful for his wife if she was at birth a British subject to make a declaration that she desires to resume British nationality, and thereupon the Secretary of State, if he is satisfied that it is desirable that she be permitted to do so, may grant her a certificate of naturalization."

(6) In subsection (1) of section twenty-seven (which contains definitions) at the end of the definition of "British subject" after the words "has been granted" there shall be inserted the words "or a person who has become a subject of His Majesty

by reason of any annexation of territory," and for subsection (2) of that section the following subsection shall be substituted :—

"(2) Where in pursuance of this Act the name of a child is included in a certificate of naturalization granted to his parent, or where, in pursuance of any Act repealed by this Act, any child has been deemed to be a naturalized British subject by reason of residence with his parent, such child shall, for the purposes of this Act, be deemed to be a person to whom a certificate of naturalization has been granted."

3.—(1) Where a certificate of naturalization has been granted in the United Kingdom during the present war to a person who at, or at any time before, the grant of the certificate was the subject of a country which at the date of the grant was at war with His Majesty, the Secretary of State shall refer for such inquiry as is provided for in the case of revocation of certificates the question whether it is desirable that the certificate should be revoked, and if such question shall be answered in the affirmative shall revoke the certificate, but this provision shall not apply to a person who at birth was a British subject.

Provisions as to naturalization certificate.

(2) No certificate of naturalization shall, before the expiration of a period of ten years after the termination of the present war, be granted in the United Kingdom to any subject of a country which at the time of the passing of this Act was at war with His Majesty, but this provision shall not apply to a person who—

2.—(1) It shall be the duty of a local education authority so to exercise their powers under Part III. of the Education Act, 1902, as—

(ii) the supply and training of teachers;

and any such authority from time to time may, and shall when required by the Board of Education, submit to the Board schemes for the exercise of their powers as an authority for the purposes of Part III. of the Education Act, 1902.

(2) So much of the definition of the term “elementary school” in section three of the Elementary Education Act, 1870, as requires that elementary education shall be the principal part of the education there given, shall not apply to such courses of advanced instruction as aforesaid. ^{33 & 34 Vict. c. 75.}

3.—(1) It shall be the duty of the local education authority for the purposes of Part II. of the Education Act, 1902, either separately or in co-operation with other local education authorities, to establish and maintain, or secure the establishment and maintenance under their control and direction, of a sufficient supply of continuation schools in which suitable courses of study, instruction, and physical training are provided without payment of fees for all young persons resident in their area who are, under this Act, under an obligation to attend such schools. ^{Establishment of continuation schools.}

(2) For the purposes aforesaid the local education authority from time to time may, and shall when required by the Board of Education, submit to the Board schemes for the progressive organisation of a system of continuation schools, and for securing general and regular attendance thereat, and in preparing schemes under this section the local education authority shall have regard to the desirability of including therein arrangements for co-operation with universities in the provision of lectures and classes for scholars for whom instruction by such means is suitable.

(3) The council of any county shall, if practicable, provide for the inclusion of representatives of education authorities for the purposes of Part III. of the Education Act, 1902, in any body of managers of continuation schools within the area of those authorities.

4.—(1) The council of any county, before submitting a scheme under this Act, shall consult the other authorities within ^{Preparation and submission of schemes.}

(2) Before submitting schemes under this Act a local education authority shall consider any representations made to them by parents or other persons or bodies of persons interested, and shall adopt such measures to ascertain their views as they consider desirable, and the authority shall take such steps to give publicity to their proposals as they consider suitable, or as the Board of Education may require.

(3) A local education authority in preparing schemes under this Act shall have regard to any existing supply of efficient and suitable schools or colleges not provided by local education authorities, and to any proposals to provide such schools or colleges.

(4) In schemes under this Act adequate provision shall be made in order to secure that children and young persons shall not be debarred from receiving the benefits of any form of education by which they are capable of profiting through inability to pay fees.

Approval of schemes by Board of Education.

5.—(1) The Board of Education may approve any scheme (which term shall include an interim, provisional, or amending scheme) submitted to them under this Act by a local education authority, and thereupon it shall be the duty of the local education authority to give effect to the scheme.

(2) If the Board of Education are of opinion that a scheme does not make adequate provision in respect of all or any of the purposes to which the scheme relates, and the Board are unable to agree with the authority as to what amendments should be made in the scheme, they shall offer to hold a conference with the representatives of the authority and, if requested by the authority, shall hold a public inquiry in the matter.

(3) If thereafter the Board of Education disapprove a scheme, they shall notify the authority, and, if within one month after such notification an agreement is not reached, they shall lay before Parliament the report of the public inquiry (if any) together with a report stating their reasons for such disapproval and any action which they intend to take in consequence thereof by way of withholding or reducing any grants payable to the authority.

Provisions as to co-operation and combination.

6.—(1) For the purpose of performing any duty or exercising any power under the Education Acts, a council having powers under those Acts may enter into such arrangements as they think proper for co-operation or combination with any other council or councils having such powers, and any such arrangement may provide for the appointment of a joint committee or a joint body of managers, for the delegation to that committee or body of managers of any powers or duties of the councils (other than the power of raising a rate or borrowing money), for the proportion of contributions to be paid by each council, and for any other matters which appear necessary for carrying out the arrangement.

(2) The Board of Education may, on the application of two or more councils having powers under the Education Acts, by scheme provide for the establishment and (if thought fit) the incorporation of a federation for such purposes of any such arrangements as aforesaid as may be specified in the scheme as being purposes relating to matters of common interest concerning education which it is necessary or convenient to consider in relation to areas larger than those of individual education authorities, and the powers conferred on councils by this section shall include power to arrange for the performance of any educational or administrative functions by such a federation as if it were a joint committee or a joint body of managers :

Provided that no council shall without its consent be included in a scheme establishing a federation, and no council shall be obliged to continue in a federation except in accordance with the provisions of a scheme to which it has consented.

(3) A scheme made by the Board of Education constituting a federation, and an arrangement establishing a joint committee or a joint body of managers, shall provide for the appointment of at least two-thirds of the members by councils having powers under the Education Acts, and may provide either directly or by co-optation for the inclusion of teachers or other persons of experience in education and of representatives of universities or other bodies.

(4) A scheme constituting a federation may on the application of one or more of the councils concerned be modified or repealed by a further scheme, and, where a scheme provides for the discontinuance of a federation, provision may be made for dealing with any property or liabilities of the federation.

(5) Where any arrangement under this section provides for the payment of an annual contribution by one council to another, the contribution shall, for the purposes of section nineteen of the Education Act, 1902, form part of the security on which money may be borrowed under that section.

7. The limit under section two of the Education Act, 1902, on the amount to be raised by the council of a county out of rates for the purpose of education other than elementary shall cease to have effect.

Provision as to amount of expenditure for education.

ATTENDANCE AT SCHOOL AND EMPLOYMENT OF CHILDREN AND YOUNG PERSONS.

Provisions as to attendance at elementary schools.

8.—(1) Subject as provided in this Act, no exemption from attendance at school shall be granted to any child between the ages of five and fourteen years, and any enactment giving a power, or imposing a duty, to provide for any such exemption, and any provision of a byelaw providing for any such exemption, shall cease to have effect, without prejudice to any exemptions already granted. Any byelaw which names a lower age than fourteen as the age up to which a parent shall cause his child to attend school shall have effect as if the age of fourteen were substituted for that lower age.

63 & 64 Vict.
c. 53.

(2) In section seventy-four of the Elementary Education Act, 1870, as amended by section six of the Elementary Education Act, 1900, fifteen years shall be substituted for fourteen years as the maximum age up to which byelaws relating to school attendance may require parents to cause their children to attend school, and any such byelaw requiring attendance at school of children between the ages of fourteen and fifteen may apply either generally to all such children, or to children other than those employed in any specified occupations:

Provided that it shall be lawful for a local education authority to grant exemption from the obligation to attend school to individual children between the ages of fourteen and fifteen for such time and upon such conditions as the authority think fit in any case where after due inquiry the circumstances seem to justify such an exemption.

(3) It shall not be a defence to proceedings relating to school attendance under the Education Acts or any byelaws made thereunder that a child is attending a school or institution providing efficient elementary instruction unless the school or institution is open to inspection either by the local education authority or by the Board of Education, and unless satisfactory registers are kept of the attendance of the scholars thereat.

(4) A local education authority may with the approval of the Board of Education make a byelaw under section seventy-four of the Elementary Education Act, 1870, providing that parents shall not be required to cause their children to attend school or to receive efficient elementary instruction in reading, writing, and arithmetic before the age of six years:

Provided that in considering any such byelaw the Board shall have regard to the adequacy of the provision of nursery schools for the area to which the byelaw relates, and shall, if requested by any ten parents of children attending public elementary schools for that area, hold a public inquiry for the purpose of determining whether the byelaw should be approved.

(5) Notwithstanding anything in the Education Acts the Board of Education may, on the application of the local education authority, authorise the instruction of children in public elementary schools till the end of the school term in which they reach the age of sixteen or (in special circumstances) such later age as appears to the Board desirable:

Provided that, in considering such application, the Board shall have regard to the adequacy and suitability of the arrangements made by the authority under paragraphs (a) and (c) of subsection (1) of section two of this Act and to the effective development and organisation of all forms of education in the area, and to any representations made by the managers of schools.

(6) The power of a local education authority under section seven of the Education Act, 1902, to give directions as to secular instruction shall include the power to direct that any child in attendance at a public elementary school shall attend during such hours as may be directed by the authority at any class, whether conducted on the school premises or not, for the purpose of practical or special instruction or demonstration, and attendance at such a class shall, where the local education authority so direct, be deemed for the purpose of any enactment or byelaw relating to school attendance to be attendance at a public elementary school :

Provided that, if by reason of any such direction a child is prevented on any day from receiving religious instruction in the school at the ordinary time mentioned in the time-table, reasonable facilities shall be afforded, subject to the provisions of section seven of the Elementary Education Act, 1870, for enabling such child to receive religious instruction in the school at some other time.

(7) In section eleven of the Elementary Education Act, 1876, ^{39 & 40 Vict. c. 79.} (which relates to school attendance) for the words "there is not within two miles" there shall be substituted the words "there is not within such distance as may be prescribed by the byelaws."

(8) Nothing in this section shall affect the provisions of the Elementary Education (Blind and Deaf Children) Act, 1893, or the Elementary Education (Defective and Epileptic Children) Acts, 1899 to 1914, relating to the attendance at school of the children to whom those Acts apply. ^{56 & 57 Vict. c. 42.}

9.—(1) If a child who is attending or is about to attend a public elementary school or a school certified by the Board of Education under the Elementary Education (Blind and Deaf Children) Act, 1893, or the Elementary Education (Defective and Epileptic Children) Acts, 1899 to 1914, attains any year of age during the school term, the child shall not, for the purpose of any enactment or byelaw, whether made before or after the passing of this Act, relating to school attendance, be deemed to have attained that year of age until the end of the term. ^{Provisions for avoidance of broken school terms.}

(2) The Local Education Authority for the purposes of Part III. of the Education Act, 1902, may make regulations with the approval of the Board of Education providing that a child may, in such cases as are prescribed by the regulations, be refused admission to a public elementary school or such certified school as aforesaid except at the commencement of a school term.

Compulsory attendance at continuation
schools.

10.—(1) Subject as hereinafter provided, all young persons shall attend such continuation schools at such times, on such days, as the local education authority of the area in which they reside may require, for three hundred and twenty hours in each year, distributed as regards times and seasons as may best suit the circumstances of each locality, or, in the case of a period of less than a year, for such number of hours distributed as aforesaid as the local education authority, having regard to all the circumstances, consider reasonable :

Provided that—

- (a) the obligation to attend continuation schools shall not, within a period of seven years from the appointed day on which the provisions of this section come into force, apply to young persons between the ages of sixteen and eighteen, nor after that period to any young person who has attained the age of sixteen before the expiration of that period ; and
 - (b) during the like period, if the local education authority so resolve, the number of hours for which a young person may be required to attend continuation schools in any year shall be two hundred and eighty instead of three hundred and twenty.

CHAPTER 40.

An Act to Consolidate the Enactments relating to Income Tax. [8th August 1918.]

BE it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :

PART I.

CHARGE OF INCOME TAX.

income tax.

1. Where any Act enacts that income tax shall be charged for any year at any rate, the tax at that rate shall be charged for that year in respect of all property, profits, or gains respectively described or comprised in the schedules marked A, B, C, D, and E, contained in the First Schedule to this Act and in accordance with the Rules respectively applicable to those Schedules.

Yearly
assessments.

2. Every assessment and charge to tax shall be made for a year commencing on the sixth day of April and ending on the following fifth day of April, except where under the provisions of this Act weekly wage-earners are to be assessed and charged quarterly.

Fractions of twenty shillings.

3. The due proportion of tax shall be charged for every fractional part of twenty shillings, but no tax shall be charged of a lower denomination than one penny.

PART II.

SUPER-TAX.

4. In addition to the income tax charged at the rate prescribed for any year, there shall be charged, levied, and paid for that year in respect of the income of any individual, the total of which from all sources exceeds two thousand five hundred pounds, an additional duty of income tax (in this Act referred to as super-tax) at the rate or rates prescribed by Parliament for that year. Charge of super tax.

5.—(1) For the purposes of super-tax, the total income of any individual from all sources shall be taken to be the total income of that individual from all sources for the previous year, estimated in the same manner as the total income from all sources is estimated for the purposes of exemption or abatement under this Act, but subject to the provisions hereinafter contained. Method of estimating income for purposes of super-tax.

(2) Where an assessment to income tax has become final and conclusive for the purposes of income tax for any year, the assessment shall also be final and conclusive in estimating total income from all sources for the purposes of super-tax for the following year, and no allowance or adjustment of liability on the ground of diminution of income or loss shall be taken into account in estimating the total income from all sources, unless that allowance or adjustment has been previously made in respect of income tax on an application under the special provisions of this Act relating thereto.

(3) In estimating the income of the previous year for the purpose of super-tax—

- (a) there shall be deducted in respect of any land on which income tax is charged upon the annual value estimated otherwise than in relation to profits (in addition to any other deduction), any sum by which the assessment is reduced for the purposes of collection, or on which income tax has been repaid under the provisions of this Act in respect of the cost of maintenance, repairs, insurance, and management; and
- (b) there shall be deducted, in the case of an individual in the service of the Crown abroad, any such sum as the Treasury may allow for expenses which in their opinion are necessarily incidental to the discharge of the functions of his office, and for which an allowance has not already been made;
- (c) any income which is chargeable with income tax by way of deduction shall be deemed to be income of the year in which it is receivable, and any deductions allowable on account of any annual sums paid out of the property or profits of the individual, shall be allowed as deductions in respect of the year in which they are payable, notwithstanding that the income or the annual sums, as the case may be, accrued in whole or in part before that year.

Charge of super-tax in case of death.

6. In the case of the death of an individual liable to super-tax during any year for which super-tax is charged, a part only of the year's super-tax shall be payable, proportionate to the part of the year which has elapsed before the date of the death.

Assessment,
collection,
and recovery of super-tax.

7.—(1) Super-tax shall be assessed and charged by the special commissioners.

(2) Every person upon whom notice is served, in manner prescribed by regulations under this section, by the special commissioners, requiring him to make a return of his total income from all sources, or, in the case of a notice served upon any person who is chargeable with or liable to be assessed to income tax, as representing an incapacitated, non-resident, or deceased person, of the total income from all sources of the incapacitated, non-resident, or deceased person, shall, whether he is or is not chargeable with super-tax, make such a return in the form and within the time required by the notice.

(3) It shall be the duty of every person chargeable with super-tax to give notice that he is chargeable to the special commissioners before the thirtieth day of September in the year for which super-tax is chargeable.

The income to which this section applies is the income derived from securities which are for the time being included in the Treasury special list as defined by this section, while those securities are so included ; and the income shall, for the purposes of this section, be deemed to be derived at the time when the interest or dividends payable in respect of the securities become payable.

(2) A person shall be entitled to relief from such additional duty of income tax—

- (b) in respect of income derived from any securities included in the Treasury special list after the securities have been placed at the absolute disposal of the Treasury ; and
- (c) in respect of income derived from any such securities after a person has placed the securities conditionally at the disposal of the Treasury, if the securities ultimately become at the absolute disposal of the Treasury without unreasonable delay on the part of that person ; and
- (d) in respect of income derived from any such securities, whether they ultimately become at the absolute disposal of the Treasury or not, if it is shown to the

- satisfaction of the Treasury that any delay in placing, or failure to place, those securities at the disposal of the Treasury has arisen from circumstances beyond the control of the holders of the securities; and
- (e) in respect of income derived from any such securities held, in any country outside the United Kingdom, by persons who are not domiciled in the United Kingdom, or by trustees who are prevented by the laws of such other country or by the terms of their trust, from placing the securities at the disposal of the Treasury, and are not entitled to the benefit of any indemnity conferred by Act of Parliament in respect of the contravention of those terms, if the securities were so held before the twenty-ninth day of May nineteen hundred and sixteen, or where such securities are under the jurisdiction of a court in such other country and it would be contrary to the laws of such other country to place such securities at the disposal of the Treasury; and
 - (f) in respect of income derived from any such securities which are deposited with persons outside the United Kingdom as a security for a loan from those persons, or have otherwise been made security for a loan from persons outside the United Kingdom, if they were so deposited or made security before the twenty-ninth day of May nineteen hundred and sixteen, or after that date with the approval of the Treasury, and if the Treasury are satisfied that the securities cannot be released without impairing the security for the loan; and
 - (g) in respect of income derived from any such securities which are proved to the special commissioners to be held by any company or persons concerned in trade or business in any country outside the United Kingdom as a condition (imposed in that country) of carrying on that trade or business.

The provisions of this subsection shall apply to an offer of securities for deposit in the same manner as they apply to an offer of securities for sale, and securities when accepted for deposit shall, while so deposited, for the purposes of this subsection, be deemed to be at the absolute disposal of the Treasury.

(3) The power under this Act to require a person to deliver statements for the purposes of tax shall include power to require him to make such returns as appear to the Commissioners of Inland Revenue to be necessary for the purpose of ascertaining whether any of the income of that person (whether or not tax thereon is chargeable by deduction), is income to which this section applies, including such particulars as to that income as the Commissioners may require, and this Act, including the provisions imposing penalties, shall apply accordingly.

(4) Where any income to which this section applies is derived from securities which are held on trust by more than one trustee, the securities may be placed at the disposal of the Treasury if, where there are two trustees, one trustee and the persons entitled to the income of the securities, and, where there are more than two trustees, one-half or more of the number of the trustees and the persons entitled to the income of the securities, are willing that the securities should be so placed at the disposal of the Treasury; and any action taken by such trustees or beneficiaries for the purpose of placing any such securities at the disposal of the Treasury shall, notwithstanding anything in the terms of the trust or any rule of law to the contrary, be as valid and effectual in all respects as though all the trustees had consented thereto and had joined therein.

(5) A person shall not be entitled to any exemption, abatement or relief under this Act (other than relief depending solely on residence or domicile) in respect of the additional duty charged in accordance with the provisions contained in this section, but in all other respects the provisions of this Act relating to persons who are to be chargeable with tax, and to assessments, and appeals against those assessments, and to the collection and recovery of tax, and to cases to be stated for the opinion of the High Court, shall, so far as they are applicable, apply to the assessment, charge, collection and recovery of the duty under this section:

Provided that the Treasury may give directions that the additional duty shall, instead of being charged by deduction, be charged up to the same amount by direct assessment for the period, and in the cases mentioned in those directions, and where any such directions are given, this Act shall have effect accordingly.

PART V.

ADMINISTRATION.

Commissioners of Inland Revenue.

57.—(1) All duties of income tax shall be under the care and management of the Commissioners of Inland Revenue.

General powers and duties of Commissioners of Inland Revenue.

(2) The said Commissioners may do all such acts as may be deemed necessary and expedient for raising, collecting, receiving, and accounting for the tax in the like and as full and ample a manner as they are authorised to do with relation to any other duties under their care and management, and, unless the Treasury otherwise direct, shall appoint such officers and other persons for collecting, receiving, managing, and accounting for any duties of income tax as are not required to be appointed by some other authority.

(3) All such appointments shall continue in force, notwithstanding the death, or ceasing to hold office, of any Commissioner of Inland Revenue, and the holders shall have power to execute the duties of their respective offices, and to enforce, in the execution thereof, all laws and regulations relating to the tax in every part of the United Kingdom.

(4) The Commissioners may suspend, reduce, discharge, or restore, as they see cause, any such officer or person.

General Commissioners.

58. All matters relating to the income tax under Schedules A, B and D, so far as they are not directed by this Act to be executed, and under Schedule E so far as they are not executed, by any other commissioners, shall be executed, as heretofore, by the commissioners for the general purposes of the income tax (in this Act referred to as general commissioners), who shall, subject to the provisions of this Act, continue to act for the same separate areas as heretofore (in this Act referred to as divisions).

General commissioners.

Appointment
of general
commissioners.

59.—(1) The persons who are general commissioners in each division at the time of the commencement of this Act shall continue in office as if they had been appointed thereunder.

(2) Vacancies amongst the said general commissioners shall be supplied by persons whose names are included in any list made for that purpose in force at the commencement of this Act or in any list to supply vacancies made under this Act.

(3) The number of general commissioners appointed, and authorised to act, for any division, and the number of persons to supply vacancies, respectively, shall not exceed seven or be less than three, but the Commissioners of Inland Revenue may, if they think fit, authorise an increase to any number not exceeding fourteen in each such case respectively :

Provided as follows :—

(i) The general commissioners may, if they think it necessary for the purpose of expediting the hearing of appeals in cases where, under the provisions of this Act, weekly wage-earners are charged in respect of their wages in each quarter of the year, add to the number of general commissioners, by the co-optation or appointment of such persons for the purpose, as they may think fit :

(ii) For the divisions formed by the cities and towns named in the Second Schedule to this Act, or in which those cities or towns are situate, further general commissioners, and persons to supply vacancies, to the numbers therein mentioned, shall be chosen, in the manner therein set forth, to act with the persons to be otherwise appointed, and the names of all such commissioners and persons shall be returned to the Commissioners of Inland Revenue.

(4) In Scotland, the sheriff depute and the sheriff substitute of any county or division shall be, ex officio and without other qualification, general commissioners for the county or division.

(5) When any general commissioner dies, or declines to act, or having acted declines to act further, the remaining commissioners shall select to take his place a person on the list to supply vacancies who was chosen in the same manner as the person whose place he takes.

(6) If at any time the number of general commissioners qualified and willing to act for any division is reduced below the authorised number and cannot be duly completed from the persons on the lists to supply vacancies, or if the number of persons on any such list is reduced below the authorised number, new appointments of general commissioners may be made, or new names of persons added to the list to supply vacancies in accordance with the following provisions :—

(a) The Commissioners of Inland Revenue shall, when they deem it necessary, convene from time to time, by notice in the Gazette, a meeting of the Land Tax Commissioners having jurisdiction with regard to land tax within the said division, who shall meet at such time and place as shall be appointed by any such notice :

- (b) The said Land Tax Commissioners shall, at every such meeting, by a majority, choose and set down in writing the names of such of the Land Tax Commissioners as are qualified, as hereinafter provided, and are fit and proper persons to act as general commissioners for the said division. The names of the persons so chosen shall be set down in the order determined by the majority :
- (c) The persons so set down, and in the order in which they shall be set down, in the list shall, subject to the limit as to number hereinbefore prescribed, be general commissioners or be added to the list to supply vacancies, as the case may require :
- (d) If at any such meeting as aforesaid there shall not be found among the persons appointed to be Land Tax Commissioners a sufficient number of names of qualified persons to act as commissioners and to supply vacancies so as to complete the due number for each list, the commissioners present may appoint any persons residing within the division, possessing the prescribed qualification, until the requisite number in each such list shall be completed, although such persons may not have been appointed Land Tax Commissioners; and if the requisite number of persons cannot be found among residents in the division, the commissioners present may select such number from the Land Tax Commissioners for any adjoining or neighbouring land tax division :
- (e) In Scotland general commissioners may be appointed by the commissioners of supply, at the meeting held annually in pursuance of subsection (2) of section twelve of the Local Government (Scotland) Act, 1889, as well as at any meeting convened for the purpose in conformity with the provisions of this section : 52 & 53 Vict.
c. 50.
- (f) In any division formed by or comprising any of the cities or towns named in the Second Schedule to this Act, the persons named in that Schedule shall, on notice from the clerk to the acting commissioners for that division, as often as occasion may require, select and add new names to the list of persons chosen by them to supply vacancies among the general commissioners appointed by them.

(7) If a sufficient number of duly qualified persons to be chosen, either to act as general commissioners or to supply vacancies, cannot be found for any city division, any person qualified to act for the county division in or adjoining which the city division is situate may be chosen for the city division.

(8) If any list for supplying vacancies, to be made and renewed in accordance with the provisions of this Act, is defective, so that the due number of commissioners cannot be supplied therefrom, it may be completed from time to time by the acting general commissioners for the division where such failure has happened.

(9) The names of persons so chosen as aforesaid shall be transmitted to the Commissioners of Inland Revenue in the order in which they have been set down in the lists, and where the requisite number of duly qualified persons has been chosen to act as general commissioners in any division, no other person shall, save as herein provided, interfere as a commissioner so long as they continue to act.

Procedure to be adopted in case of default of general commissioners.

60.—(1) If in any division there shall be neglect in appointing general commissioners, or if the commissioners appointed shall neglect or refuse to act, or, having acted, decline to act further, the Land Tax Commissioners, or any of them not exceeding seven in number, possessing the prescribed qualification, shall, on notice thereof given to their clerk by any surveyor authorised by the Commissioners of Inland Revenue to give such notice, forthwith take upon themselves the execution of this Act, and execute all matters which general commissioners are required and authorised to perform.

(2) If the number of Land Tax Commissioners in any division, possessing the prescribed qualification, be insufficient for the purpose, the commissioners of any adjoining division within the same county, possessing the prescribed qualification, shall, on like notice as aforesaid, execute this Act as general commissioners by themselves or in concurrence with any persons willing to act as commissioners for the division.

(3) If the persons to whom any such notice has been given shall not take upon themselves the execution of this Act within ten days next after such notice, or shall not proceed therein with due diligence, the special commissioners may execute this Act in such division in all matters directed to be done by general commissioners.

(4) Where names of commissioners willing to act in a division are not returned to the Commissioners of Inland Revenue, the Commissioners of Inland Revenue may cause such notices as aforesaid to be given to two or more of the persons on whom the right of executing this Act shall devolve, as hereinbefore mentioned.

Additional Commissioners.

Additional commissioners.

61.—(1) Whenever the general commissioners, acting in and for any division, deem it expedient that certain of the powers under this Act shall be executed by commissioners other than and in addition to the persons appointed as hereinbefore prescribed, they may, at any meeting held for the purpose, set down in writing lists of the names of persons residing in the division who may appear to the majority to be fit and proper persons to act as additional commissioners.

(2) Such lists shall contain the names of so many of those persons as the said commissioners shall, in their discretion, after taking into consideration the size of the division and the number of persons to be assessed therein, think requisite for the purpose.

(3) Any such list signed by the said general commissioners shall be sufficient authority for such additional commissioners, being respectively qualified under this Act, to take upon themselves the execution of their powers and duties under this Act :

Provided as follows :—

(a) Persons appointed to supply vacancies in any division may be chosen and may act as additional commissioners until their services are required as general commissioners :

(b) Where no additional commissioners are appointed in any division the general commissioners for that division shall execute this Act in all matters authorised to be done by additional commissioners.

62.—(1) Whenever the general commissioners shall have named additional commissioners as aforesaid, they shall cause notice thereof in writing, signed by any two or more of them, to be served on the additional commissioners by the assessors of the respective parishes, naming the day (not being later than ten days after the date of the notice), and the place appointed by the general commissioners, for the first meeting of the additional commissioners so named, and requiring their attendance accordingly.

(4) Not more than seven persons shall act together as additional commissioners for any division, or on any committee, and if more than seven persons be present at any meeting, then the seven persons first in order on the list signed by the general commissioners shall act, and the rest shall withdraw.

(5) Not less than two additional commissioners shall be competent to form any meeting, and any act, authorised by this Act, shall be valid, if done by the authority of the majority of the additional commissioners present.

greater number of general
commissioners in lieu of addi-

Provided that in any such case—

- (a) no addition shall be made to the number of persons to supply vacancies; and
- (b) the general commissioners, at their first meeting after any such appointment, shall choose by lot not less than two or more than seven of their number to execute the office of additional commissioners, and the persons so chosen shall be additional commissioners for executing this Act, and the remaining commissioners shall execute the powers of general commissioners.

(2) Where additional commissioners have not been appointed, and where a greater number of general commissioners instead of additional commissioners has not been appointed specially to execute the powers of additional commissioners, the general commissioners shall divide themselves in such manner that not less than two of their number shall be appointed to exercise the powers of additional commissioners; and if there shall not remain two persons at least qualified to act as general commissioners in the division, the general commissioners in any adjoining division of the same county, or such number of them as shall be requisite, shall act as general commissioners.

and they shall have power to assess, collect, and levy any such tax and arrears of tax.

(2) The general commissioners and additional commissioners and the Land Tax Commissioners respectively shall, for the execution of such of their duties as are required by this Act to be done at a meeting, meet together from time to time, within the times prescribed by this Act within their respective divisions, at the most usual place of meeting :

(2) If the appellant does not proceed, with effect, to cause such valuation to be made, the commissioners shall determine the annual value according to the best of their judgment.

(3) The costs and charges of any such valuation shall abide the final determination of the commissioners, and, if the value so found exceeds the value alleged by the appellant, the commissioners may order him to pay the costs and charges of the valuation, but if they are of opinion that such costs and charges have not been incurred through any default of the appellant, they shall issue an order for the payment of the said costs and charges by the Commissioners of Inland Revenue.

(4) This section shall not apply within the administrative county of London.

139.—(1) If the general commissioners have received notice of appeal against an assessment made by the additional commissioners, or see cause to allow the objection of the surveyor to any such assessment, they shall issue a precept to the appellant ordering him to deliver to them, within the time limited by the precept, a schedule containing such particulars, for their information, as they may demand under the authority of this Act respecting— Power of general commissioners on appeal to issue precepts.

(2) The general commissioners may issue further precepts whenever they consider it necessary for the purposes aforesaid, until complete particulars have been furnished to their satisfaction.

(3) A person to whom a precept is issued shall deliver the schedule required, within the time limited, and in default thereof, shall forfeit a sum not exceeding twenty pounds and treble the tax at which he ought to be charged.

(3) (a) If proceedings for recovery of any such penalty have been commenced before the general commissioners, they may, on proof to their satisfaction that no fraud or evasion was intended, stay the proceedings, either on payment of the costs then incurred, or without any such payment.

(b) If proceedings have been commenced in any court, the general commissioners may certify that in their judgment no fraud or evasion was intended, and the court may, on summary application, stay the proceedings, on such terms as to the court may seem fit.

(4) If a person has delivered an imperfect statement or schedule, and satisfies the general commissioners that there is a sufficient reason why a perfect statement or schedule cannot be delivered within due time, the commissioners shall extend the time for delivery as from time to time they think fit. During any such extension of time, a person who has delivered as perfect a statement or schedule as from the nature of the case he was able to deliver, shall not be liable to any penalty for not having delivered a statement or schedule within the time limited.

(2) In every such case, he shall give notice in writing of his objection, to the person to be charged in order that he may, if he thinks fit, appeal against the same. The notice shall be under cover and sealed, and addressed to the person to be charged.

(b) Where any clerk, agent or servant of the person to be charged tenders himself, on behalf of such person, to be examined orally before the commissioners, the same provisions shall apply to his examination as in the case of the person to be charged who tenders himself to be examined orally.

(2) The oath shall be that the evidence to be given, touching the matter in question by the person sworn, shall be the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth, and the said oath shall be subscribed by the person by whom it is made.

146.—(1) If the general commissioners—

- (a) have made a charge to tax under Schedule D in respect of a sum in excess of the amount contained in either the statement or the schedule of a person to be charged; or
- (b) discover, from the information of the surveyor, or otherwise, that a charge to tax in respect of a sum in excess of either such amount ought to be made, and an assessment is made, at any time within the year of assessment or within three years after the expiration thereof, they may, unless the person to be charged proves to their satisfaction that the omission by him did not proceed from any fraud, covin, art or contrivance or any gross or wilful neglect, charge that person, in respect of such excess, in a sum not exceeding treble the amount of the tax on the amount of the excess.

(2) If the person to be charged has neglected or refused to deliver a statement or schedule, the said commissioners may charge him in a sum not exceeding treble the amount of the tax with which, in their judgment, he ought to be charged. (2) (a) The High Court shall hear and determine any question or questions of law arising on the case, and shall reverse, affirm, or amend the determination in respect of which the case has been stated, or shall remit the matter to the commissioners with the opinion of the Court thereon, or may make such other order in relation to the matter, and may make such order as to costs as to the Court may seem fit.

(b) The High Court may cause the case to be sent back for amendment, and thereupon the case shall be amended accordingly, and judgment shall be delivered after it has been amended.

(c) Subject to rules of Court, the authority and jurisdiction of the High Court may be exercised by a judge of the High Court sitting in chambers, and either in vacation or in term time.

Provided that, if the amount of the assessment is altered by the order or judgment of the High Court, then—

- (a) if too much tax has been paid, the amount overpaid shall be refunded with such interest, if any, as the High Court may allow; or
- (b) if too little tax has been paid, the amount unpaid shall be deemed to be arrears of tax (except so far as any penalty is incurred on account of arrears), and shall be paid and recovered accordingly.

150. As soon as the general commissioners have signed and allowed any assessments, and the time limited for hearing appeals therefrom has elapsed, the clerk shall number the pages in each book of assessment and duly cast up and total the sums in each page. Books of assessment.

Provision against double assessment.

(2) If it appears, to the satisfaction of the Commissioners of Inland Revenue, that a person has been assessed more than once for the same cause and for the same year, they shall direct the whole, or such part of any such assessment as appears to be an overcharge, to be vacated, and thereupon the same shall be vacated accordingly

(3) If it is proved, to the satisfaction of the Commissioners of Inland Revenue, that any such double assessment as aforesaid has been made, and that payment has been made on both assessments, they shall order the amount of the overpayment to be repaid to the applicant.

152.—(1) The general commissioners shall, yearly, cause to be made out by their clerk, in the prescribed form, and to be transmitted to the Commissioners of Inland Revenue, two duplicates of the charge by all the assessments made in the year. Charge duplicates.

(5) A clerk who —

(2) The assessments shall be kept by the clerk for the use of the commissioners, and the commissioners shall deliver one of the two duplicates to the surveyor for the district, and the other to the collector for the parish for which the assessments were made, together with a warrant, in the prescribed form, for collecting and levying the tax charged.

(3) Where a collector has been required to give security, the duplicates and warrants shall not be delivered to him until he has given that security.

Certificates of special
assessments.

154.—(1) An extract from any assessment made by the special commissioners, certified under the hand of their clerk, in such form as the Commissioners of Inland Revenue may prescribe, shall be sufficient authority to the proper officer to whom that extract is transmitted to receive, bring to account, and give discharges for the tax included in the extract and paid to him.

(2) If payment is not made to the proper officer, the special commissioners shall make a duplicate of the assessment and deliver it, together with their warrant for levying the amount of tax due, to the collector for the parish in which the person charged resides, who shall levy the same in accordance with the warrant.

tax in public departments.

155.—(1) Where in any public department, or in any office for which commissioners are specially appointed, the appointment of collectors is authorised, the respective commissioners shall cause duplicates of assessment and warrants for the collection of tax in the prescribed form to be made and delivered to the collectors, who shall be authorised to demand and levy the tax in the same manner as in the case of collectors for any parish.

(2) Where the tax on any salaries, fees, wages, perquisites, or profits of any public office, or any annuities, pensions, or stipends, is deducted, the respective commissioners shall cause similar duplicates to be delivered to the proper officers in the departments or offices concerned, and those officers shall keep true accounts of and be answerable for all tax so deducted, and such tax shall be accounted for and paid to the Commissioners of Inland Revenue.

(5) On payment of any such amount the said officer shall give a certificate of payment, identified by the number or letter marked on the certificate, but not naming or describing the person on whose behalf payment is made.

(6) The certificate given on any such payment of tax shall be delivered by the person charged to the general commissioners or their clerk, at their office, before the time limited for payment, and a receipt shall be given for the same. The receipt shall be a sufficient discharge for the money certified to have been paid.

(7) Whenever the tax in respect of any such assessment becomes due and in arrear, the general commissioners shall cause that assessment to be added to the duplicates in the hands of one of the respective collectors to whom has been intrusted the collection of tax charged on persons by name, and the tax on that assessment shall be recovered and levied in the same manner, and under the like provisions and powers, as the tax charged on persons by name.

157.—(1) Income tax contained in an assessment for any year shall, except as otherwise provided in this section, be payable on or before the first day of January in that year, but tax included in an assessment for any year, which is signed and allowed on or after the first day of January, shall be deemed to be due and payable on the day next after the day on which the assessment is signed and allowed. Tax, when due.

(2)—(a) Tax for any year shall, in cases to which this subsection applies, instead of being payable on or before the first day of January in that year, or on such other date as is specified in subsection (1) of this section, be payable in two equal instalments, the first on or before the first day of January in that year, or on such other day as aforesaid, and the second on or before the following first day of July;

But where the assessment is not signed and allowed until after the said following first day of July, this subsection shall not have effect, and the tax shall be due and payable as provided in subsection (1) of this section;

(b) This subsection applies in cases of tax charged under No. I. or No. II. of Schedule A and tax charged on any individual or firm under Schedule B in respect of lands occupied for husbandry only, and tax charged on any individual or firm under Schedule D, or the rules thereof, in respect of the profits or gains of any trade or of any profession or vocation, and tax charged on any individual in respect of any office or employment, whether under Schedule D or Schedule E, except individuals whose tax is deducted at definite intervals of less than half a year, and weekly wage-earners whose tax is, under this Act, assessed and charged quarterly.

(c) The provisions of this Act as to the recovery of tax shall apply to each instalment of the tax, in the same manner as they apply to the whole amount of the tax.

(3) Railway companies in England and Ireland shall pay tax under Schedule D by four quarterly payments, that is to say, on or before the twentieth days of June, September, December, and March respectively, in each year.

(4) The tax payable by weekly wage-earners, who under the provisions of this Act are to be assessed and charged quarterly, shall be payable as prescribed by any regulations made by the Commissioners of Inland Revenue.

(3) On payment of the tax the collector shall, without charge, give a receipt under his hand, on the prescribed form, and if he has failed to give the particulars required by subsection (2) of this section in the demand note, he shall give them in the receipt.

159. Any person, on production to the proper officer of his notice or certificate of assessment, may pay to him in advance any sum therein charged upon him under Schedule D, and such officer, on request made at the time of payment, may make an allowance from the amount payable, calculated at the rate of two pounds ten shillings per cent. per annum on that amount for the period commencing on the day when the payment was made and ending on the day limited for payment, and such officer shall give a certificate of payment, specifying the amount discharged and the amount of the allowance, by reference to the name, or the number or letter, appearing on the notice or certificate of assessment respectively.

Payment of tax may be made in advance subject to discount.

160. If the Commissioners of Inland Revenue make arrangements for the collection of tax by means of stamps in any case, they may prepare and issue any stamps required for the purpose, and the provisions (including penal provisions) of the Stamp Duties Management Act, 1891, as amended by any subsequent Act, and section sixty-five of the Post Office Act, 1908, shall apply to any such stamps.

- (a) the parent, guardian or tutor of the infant shall be liable for the tax in default of payment by the infant; and
- (b) the executor or administrator of the person deceased shall be liable for the tax charged on such deceased person, and on neglect or refusal of payment any such person so liable as aforesaid may be proceeded against in like manner as any other defaulter.

(2) A parent, guardian or tutor who makes such payment shall be allowed all sums so paid in his accounts, and an executor or administrator may deduct all such payments out of the assets and effects of the person deceased.

(3) If the owner of any lands, tenements, hereditaments, or heritages, occupied by him at the time an assessment for any year under Schedule A was made, dies before payment of the tax, the heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns, or other persons who become entitled on his death, to the rents and profits thereof, shall be liable to pay all arrears of tax due at the time of the death, or, if no arrears are due, the tax payable for the period up to the time of the death, together with, in either case, the tax payable for the remainder of that year, according to their respective interests, without any new assessment.

162.—(1) If a person neglects or refuses to pay the sum charged, upon demand made by the collector in accordance with the assessments and warrants delivered to him, the collector shall, for non-payment thereof, distrain upon the lands, tenements and premises in respect of which the tax is charged, or distrain the person charged by his goods and chattels, and all such other goods and chattels as the collector is hereby authorised to distrain, without any further authority for that purpose than the warrant delivered to him on his appointment.

(2) For the purpose of levying any such distress, a collector may, after obtaining a warrant for that purpose, under the hands and seals of the general commissioners, break open, in the daytime, any house or premises, calling to his assistance any constable or other peace officer. Every such constable or officer shall, when so required, aid and assist the collector in the execution of the warrant and in levying the distress in the house or premises.

(3) A levy or warrant to break open shall be executed by, or under the direction of, and in the presence of, the collector.

(4) A distress levied by the collector shall be kept for five days, at the costs and charges of the person neglecting or refusing to pay.

(5) If the person aforesaid does not pay the sum due, together with the costs and charges, within the said five days, the distress shall be appraised by two or more inhabitants of the parish in which the distress is taken, or by other sufficient persons, and shall be sold by public auction by the collector or his deputy for payment of the sum due and all costs and charges. The costs and charges of taking, keeping, and selling the distress shall be retained by the collector or his deputy, and any overplus coming by the distress, after the deduction of the costs and charges and of the sum due, shall be restored to the owner of the goods distrained.

(6) If a collector advances and pays over to the proper officer any sum of money on account of tax charged on some other person, whether at the request of that person or not, he may, in default of repayment to him of that sum at any time within six months after the payment, levy the tax in like manner as if that sum of money had not been advanced and paid.

claim for tax over other creditors.

163.—(1) No goods or chattels whatever, belonging to any person at the time any tax becomes in arrear, shall be liable to be taken by virtue of any execution or other process, warrant, or authority whatever, or by virtue of any assignment, on any account or pretence whatever, except at the suit of the landlord for rent, unless the person at whose suit the execution or seizure is made, or to whom the assignment was made, pays or causes to be paid to the collector, before the sale or removal of the goods or chattels, all arrears of tax which are due at the time of seizure, or which are payable for the year in which the seizure is made :

Provided that where tax is claimed for more than one year, the person at whose instance the seizure has been made, may, on paying to the collector the tax which is due for one whole year, proceed in his seizure in like manner as if no tax had been claimed.

(2) In case of neglect or refusal to pay the tax so claimed or the tax for one whole year, as the case may be, the collector shall distrain the goods and chattels, notwithstanding the seizure or assignment, and shall proceed to the sale thereof, as prescribed by this Act, for the purpose of obtaining payment of the whole of the tax charged and claimed, and the reasonable costs and charges attending such distress and sale, and every collector so doing shall be indemnified by virtue of this Act.

164. If lands charged under Schedule A are unoccupied, and no distress can be found thereon at the time the tax is payable, the collector for the time being of the parish in which the lands are situate may at any future time when there is any distress to be found on the lands, enter, seize, and sell, under the same powers as if a distraint had been made on the lands at the time the tax became due and as if the occupier had been in occupation at that time.

Distraint on lands previously unoccupied becoming occupied.

165.—(1) If a person neglects or refuses to pay tax charged upon him by virtue of this Act within ten clear days after demand as aforesaid, and no sufficient distress can be found whereby the same may be levied, the general commissioners may, by warrant under their hands and seals, commit him to prison, there to be kept without bail until payment be made of that sum or security given to their satisfaction for payment thereof, together with such further sum, as the commissioners shall adjudge to be reasonable, for the costs and expenses of apprehending and conveying him to prison; and every such person shall be detained and kept in prison according to the tenor and effect of the warrant.

(2) By direction of the Treasury or of the Commissioners of Inland Revenue, the general commissioners shall issue their warrant to the governor of the prison in which any defaulter is detained under their warrant, directing the liberation of the defaulter, and, on receipt thereof, the governor shall forthwith release and discharge him out of custody, if he is under detention for no other cause than as set forth in the warrant of commitment.

166. In Scotland, the following provisions shall have effect :—

the certificate as a defaulter, notwithstanding that he was not named in the assessment to tax :

- (2) The warrant shall be executed by the sheriff's officers of the county :
- (3) The goods and effects so pointed shall be detained and kept on the ground, or at the house where the same were pointed, or in such other place of which the owner shall have notice, near to the said ground or house, as the officer so pointing the same shall think proper, for the space of five days, during which time the said goods and effects shall remain in the custody of the said officer, and liable to the payment of the whole tax in arrear and to the costs to be paid to the officer who pointed the same as hereinafter directed, unless the owner from whom the same were pointed shall redeem the same, within the said space of five days, by payment to the officer of the said tax in arrear and costs, to be settled in the same manner as if the said goods and effects had been sold as hereinafter directed :
- (4) The goods and effects so pointed shall, after the expiration of the said five days, be valued and appraised by any two persons to be appointed by the officer (which two persons shall be obliged to value the same, under the penalty of forty shillings sterling for each neglect or refusal), and shall be sold and disposed of, at a sum not less than the value, by the officer who does point the same :
- (5) The value shall be applied, in the first place to the satisfaction and payment of the tax owing by the person whose goods are so pointed, and, in the second place, to the payment for the trouble of the officer so pointing, at the rate of two shillings per pound of the tax for which the goods shall be so pointed unless the owner from whom the same were pointed shall redeem the same by payment of the appraised value, within the space of five days after the valuation, to the officer who pointed the same :

- (8) There shall also be allowed, to the officer so poinding, the expense of preserving the said goods and effects, and of maintaining the cattle, if there should happen to be any among the goods and effects so poinded, from the time of poinding the same, during the period allowed to the owner to redeem them, and also the expense of the sale; and in like manner the expense shall be allowed to the sheriff or sheriff substitute, for preserving and maintaining the goods or cattle poinded, during the period that the owner is allowed to redeem, after consignment in his hands, and until the sale thereof, and also the expense of the sale; and where no goods or effects, sufficient for payment of the said tax, can be found to be so poinded, and the person liable neglects or refuses to pay the same, in every such case the commissioners, or the sheriff or sheriff substitute, is hereby authorised, by warrant, to commit such person to prison, there to be kept, without bail, until payment shall be made or security for payment be given :

and appoint-

(2) The said general commissioners or the Commissioners of Inland Revenue, whenever necessary, may revoke such last-mentioned appointment, and appoint a collector in like manner, from time to time and as often as any such collector shall be guilty of such neglect, provided security be taken, if required, as in the case of an original appointment, and provided the like security be taken on every such new appointment as has been required to be taken on the appointment of the collector.

(3) The collector in default shall, when required by the said respective commissioners, deliver up to them or in their presence to the collector appointed in his place, or to the surveyor, all duplicates of assessments which he was charged to collect, and all books, receipts, counterfoils, and vouchers for payment, and shall pay to the proper officer all sums then in his hands, at such time as the said respective commissioners shall appoint.

179.—(1) If a collector fails to pay any tax or moneys received by him as collector, and detains in his hands, and does not pay or account for the same in manner directed by this Act, the general commissioners, in their respective divisions, may imprison him and seize and secure the estate, as well freehold as copyhold, and all other estate, both real and personal, belonging to him or which has descended or come into the possession of his heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns, wheresoever the same can be discovered and found.

(4) The commissioners acting for the division in which the estate and effects of such collector are seized and secured, as aforesaid, shall make conveyance of all such freehold and copyhold estates respectively, and in like manner assign the leasehold and other personal estate of the collector, and all his right, title, and interest therein at the time of the seizure or at the time of the death of any collector so dying in default, as aforesaid, to the respective purchasers thereof, by deed executed by any two or more of the said commissioners.

(5) Any person to whom any such sale of copyhold lands is made shall, before he enters or takes any profit of the said lands or tenements, agree and compound with the lord of the manor of whom the same are held, for such fines or incomes as have been most usual and accustomed to be yielded or paid therefor; and, upon every such agreement or composition, the said lord for the time being, at the next court to be held for the said manor, shall not only grant to the said vendee, upon request, the same copyhold or customary lands or tenements

(2) A schedule delivered upon oath by such collector in pursuance of this Act, and containing, or purporting to contain, the names of persons who have made default in payment of the tax and the sums remaining in arrear, shall, in any such action and upon all other occasions, be sufficient evidence to charge the collector and his sureties, respectively, with all other sums of money comprised in the duplicate or duplicates given to him in charge to collect, and not included in that schedule or previously accounted for and paid over to the proper officer; and all such sums not so included in the schedule, or previously accounted for and paid over, shall be deemed to have been collected and received by the collector and to remain in his hands unpaid and in arrear.

(3) (a) If the general commissioners, in any such action, without any wilful neglect or default on their part, fail to recover judgment against the defendant, and costs are awarded to the defendant, or if any action is brought against the general commissioners in relation to any such bond and they are ordered to pay costs to the plaintiff, the commissioners shall not be personally liable for the costs, but the costs shall be defrayed by an assessment upon the inhabitants of the parish in relation to which the bond which was the subject of the action was given.

(b) The commissioners shall make, sign, and allow any such assessment as soon as conveniently can be done after the costs have been ascertained, and shall cause the assessment to be made, collected, levied and recovered in the same manner as assessments of tax under this Act, and shall cause the costs to be paid to the person entitled thereto.

(b) The re-assessment shall be made by duly apportioning the amount of the arrears among the several persons charged in that year to the same tax to which such arrears relate, according to the charge on each person, as nearly as the case will admit, and by the like rules, methods, and directions by which the original assessment of the same tax was made.

(4) A parish which is returned insuper for any sums contained in the duplicate of assessments and not accounted for to the proper officer, shall be liable to be re-assessed in respect of the sums returned insuper, except where any such parish is, by special enactment, relieved from liability to re-assessment.

(5) The King's Remembrancer shall cause every certificate of failure, as aforesaid, to be enrolled in his office, and the enrolment shall be a record in his office and effectual to authorise the issue of process against the county, division, parish and person respectively.

(6) On the application of the Commissioners of Inland Revenue, any such process shall, from time to time, as occasion shall arise, be forthwith issued out of the High Court against such of the commissioners, officers, or persons as have made such failure.

PART IX.

SPECIAL PROVISIONS APPLICABLE TO IRELAND.

Special provisions applicable to Ireland.

186. The general provisions of this Act shall, in their application to Ireland, have effect subject to, and so far only as they are applicable consistently with, the special provisions contained in this Part of this Act.

Poor rate valuations to be taken as annual values for purposes of Schedules A and B.

187.—(1) The annual value of all tenements and rateable hereditaments with reference to which tax is to be charged under Schedules A and B shall be ascertained according to the respective surveys and valuations from time to time in force for the purposes of poor rates:

Provided that the annual value of lands for the purposes of Schedule B shall be taken to be—

- (a) the judicial rent fixed under the Land Law (Ireland) Acts or any of them; or
- (b) the annual interest payable to the Irish Land Commission in lieu of rent under the Land Purchase (Ireland) Acts or any of them; or
- (c) the purchase annuity payable under the Land Purchase (Ireland) Acts or any of them, in any case in which it is shown that the judicial rent, the annual interest in lieu of rent, or the purchase annuity, as the case may be, is less than the annual value according to the survey or valuation aforesaid.

(2) The said tax under Schedule A shall be charged upon the landlord or immediate lessor of a tenement or rateable hereditament, but may, if it appears to the special commissioners to be necessary or proper, be charged upon the person rated to poor rates in respect of any such property.

(3) Tax under Schedule B shall be charged upon the occupier of a tenement or rateable hereditament.

(4) In the event of an appeal by a person who considers himself aggrieved by any such assessment, if it is proved to the satisfaction of the special commissioners by whom the appeal is heard, or the recorder or county court judge by whom the appeal is re-heard, as the case may be, that the annual value on which the assessment is based exceeds the annual rent at which the property in respect of which the assessment is made is worth to be let from year to year, relief shall be given by reducing the assessment and charging the tax on the amount on which it would have been charged if that rent had been adopted as the basis of the assessment instead of such annual value.

(5) If such annual rent at which the property is worth to be let from year to year exceeds the actual rent payable yearly by the tenant or occupier, the landlord or immediate lessor shall be assessed and charged, under Schedule A, on the amount of such actual rent only, and the tenant or occupier shall be assessed and charged under Schedule A on the difference, subject to any claim for exemption, abatement, or relief to which any of the aforesaid persons may respectively be entitled.

(6) Where a person who receives rent in respect of any hereditament which is exempt from being rated to poor rates, is liable to be rated in respect of that rent to the extent of one-half the poundage of any poor rate, the tax under Schedule A shall be assessed and charged upon him upon the full amount of that rent.

188. Assessments under Schedules A and B—

- (a) shall be made by the surveyors or other officers acting in that behalf under the direction of the Commissioners of Inland Revenue;
- (b) shall be made for and comprise the respective premises which are situate in an administrative county, county borough, county district, or such other district as the said Commissioners shall direct, and
- (c) shall be signed by the special commissioners.

4. In each of the cases mentioned in rules 1. 2 and 3 tax shall be assessed and charged on the person entitled to the tithes or payments, or his lessee or tenant, agent or factor, except when the tax is charged in accordance with rule 6 of No. VII. of this Schedule.

Tax shall be assessed and charged on the receiver of the fines : Provided that if the person chargeable satisfies the general commissioners for the division that any part of the fines has been applied as productive capital, on which a profit has arisen or will arise which is otherwise chargeable for the year for which the assessment is made, the commissioners may discharge the amount so applied from the profits liable to assessment and charge under this rule.

7. In the case of all other profits not before enumerated (other than profits liable to deduction in pursuance of rules 1 and 4 of No. VIII. of this Schedule) arising from lands, tenements, hereditaments or heritages not being in the actual possession or occupation of the person to be charged, the annual value shall be understood to be the average amount for one year of the profits of the number of years which, on the statement of the person to be charged, appears to the commissioners to be fair and equitable. Tax shall be assessed and charged on the receivers of such profits or on the persons entitled thereto.

If, in estimating the value of any property enumerated in the above rules, it appears that the statement required cannot be made out because the possession or interest of the person to be charged commenced within the period upon the basis of which the profits are to be computed, the profits of one year shall be estimated in proportion to the profits received within the time which has elapsed since the commencement of that possession or interest.

No. III.

Provided that—

- (a) If any such mine has, from some unavoidable cause, so decreased and is so decreasing in annual value that an average of five years will not give a fair estimate thereof, the general commissioners of the division in which the mine is situate may, on proof thereof, compute the annual value on the actual amount of profits in the last preceding year subject to such abatement on account of diminution of duty within the current year as is in this Act provided in other cases; and
- (b) If any such mine has, from some unavoidable cause, wholly failed, the commissioners may, on due proof thereof, discharge the assessment.

3. In the case of ironworks, gasworks, salt springs or works, alum mines or works, waterworks, streams of water, canals, inland navigations, docks, drains or levels, fishings, rights of markets and fairs, tolls, railways and other ways, bridges, ferries, and other concerns of the like nature having profits from or arising out of any lands, tenements, hereditaments or heritages, the annual value shall be understood to be the profits of the preceding year.

5. Tax shall be assessed and charged on the value of the produce of the concern, before any distribution to any person entitled to any share thereof, or to the owner of the soil or property, or to any creditor or other person whatever who has a claim on the profits, and every such person shall allow, out of the produce or value, a proportionate deduction of the tax charged.

No. III.

made out because the possession or interest of the person to be assessed and charged commenced within the period upon the basis of which the profits are to be computed, the profits of one year shall be estimated in proportion to the profits received within the time which has elapsed since the commencement of that possession or interest.

No. IV.

No. IV.—Rules for estimating Annual Value.

1. Where—

- (a) a landlord is subject to an agreement to pay or satisfy out of the rent reserved on any lands or tenements, any public local rates, taxes, or assessments, which by law are charged upon the occupier, or any composition for tithes; or
- (b) any person entitled to a rent or other annual payment in lieu of tithes (other than a tithe rentcharge confirmed under the Tithe Act, 1836), or to any composition for tithes, pays or satisfies out of the amount thereof any such public local rates, taxes or assessments charged upon the same;

the annual value shall be estimated exclusive of any such public local charges, or composition for tithes, bonâ fide paid by the landlord or other person aforesaid, respectively, in and for the year preceding the year of assessment.

2. Where the owner is also occupier of the lands or tenements, and has paid any such public local charges or composition for tithes in respect thereof, the annual value shall be estimated in like manner.

3. If the assessor is satisfied with the amount contained in any account or statement of the annual value of properties to be assessed under this Schedule delivered under this Act, he shall make an assessment on that amount, and if he is not satisfied, or if no such account or statement has been delivered, he shall estimate to the best of his judgment the annual value of the property and make an assessment thereon.

4. Where the annual value is to be ascertained according to the general rule of No. I. of this Schedule, and that value cannot be otherwise ascertained, and the last poor rate in the parish was made throughout on the annual value as the same would be estimated under the said general rule or on a proportionate part thereof, the assessor may make his assessment by reference to the annual value for the purposes of the poor rate, but in all cases on the full amount of the annual value instead of on a proportionate part thereof.

5. Where any dwelling-house or tenement, together with the offices, gardens, and lands occupied therewith, or any lands separately occupied, is of an annual value under ten pounds, the assessor may estimate the annual value to the best of his judgment and make an assessment thereon without requiring a statement of the annual value to be delivered, unless the surveyor objects to his estimate and requires a notice for that purpose to be served.

6. An assessor who, not having required such statement, neglects to estimate the true annual value of any such property and to assess the same according to this Act, shall forfeit a sum not exceeding ten pounds.

*7. If any tenant at rackrent produces to the assessor the lease or agreement in writing under which he immediately holds any premises chargeable under the general rule of No. I. of this Schedule, and it appears therefrom that the premises have been let within the seven preceding years, and that no consideration in money other than the rent reserved is contained in the lease or agreement, the assessor may make his assessment according to that rent. Schedule A
No. IV.

*8. The tenant shall produce his lease or agreement to the assessor on request by him.

*9. Any such assessment shall not be binding if it appears to the commissioners—

- (a) that the lease or agreement does not express the full consideration in money or value for the demise or the rent bonâ fide paid for the same; or
- (b) that the rent reserved is less than the rackrent on account of repairs or improvements effected, or to be effected, by the tenant or his assigns; or
- (c) that the lease or agreement was in any other respect made with intent to conceal the annual value of the premises, or to diminish the estimate to be made thereon, or has been assigned to the tenant or any former tenant for any consideration in money or value paid or agreed to be paid.

*10. In making any such assessment regard shall be had to—

- (a) any increase of the amount of the rent reserved by reason of any agreement by the landlord to discharge the tenant's rates, taxes, assessments, or duties hereinbefore mentioned;
- (b) any decrease in the amount of the rent by reason of any agreement by the tenant to discharge those of the landlord;
- (c) any decrease in the amount of the rent by reason of any expenses incurred or to be incurred by the tenant or any assigns, whether mentioned or not in the lease or agreement; and
- (d) any deductions to be made on account of any public rate or assessment hereinbefore described.

*11. In the case of a demise for years of land made in consideration of a rent reserved and of improvements to be made at the cost of the tenant, if it is proved to the satisfaction of the general commissioners that the rent reserved was, in view of the improved value expected to be realised at the cost of the tenant, based upon an estimate of the mean annual value of the land throughout the term, and that the rent, so computed, is fixed and payable at the same amount in each year so that in consequence thereof the rent payable exceeds the annual value at the commencement of the term, the annual value for each year of assessment during the term of the demise shall be taken to be the amount of the rent reserved without variation, subject to the deductions allowed by this Act.

*12. A tenant being—

- (a) a tenant at rackrent under a parol demise from year to year within the period defined in the general rule of No. I. of this Schedule; and
- (b) a tenant who has neither the custody, nor the power to call for the production, of the lease or agreement under which he holds premises demised within the said period and who proves to the commissioners his inability to produce the same, shall deliver to the assessor an account in writing, signed by him, stating the amount of the annual rent reserved on any such demise, and thereupon the same rules shall apply as in the case of a tenant who produces to the assessor his lease or agreement.

Schedule A.
No. IV.

13. Lands held for a longer period than seven years, by a tenant at will or under a demise from year to year, shall be estimated and assessed at their annual value, unless the tenant proves to the satisfaction of the general commissioners that they are held under a demise which was commenced by an agreement made, and a rent fixed, within the period of seven years, on the determination of the former demise of those lands, by due notice within that period.

14. A person who wilfully—

- (a) delivers any such account as aforesaid, which is false; or
- (b) refuses, neglects, or omits to produce any lease or agreement with intent to conceal the annual value of the premises therein comprised, or to diminish the estimate to be made thereon, shall forfeit the sum of twenty pounds, and may be charged in treble the tax chargeable, to be computed on the annual value of the premises and included in the assessment.

15. In Scotland—

- (a) Every tenant of lands, tenements, or heritages shall, within ten days after service by the assessor of a notice requiring him to do so, produce to the assessor the tack, lease, or other agreement or articles in writing under which he holds:
- (b) If any such documents of title are not within the custody, possession, or power of the tenant, or if there are no such documents, the tenant shall deliver to the assessor within the time limited as aforesaid, a written note stating the actual rent annually reserved, and any other valuable consideration given to the landlord for the tenancy:
- (c) A tenant who wilfully neglects to comply with any such notice shall be liable to a penalty of treble the tax chargeable on such lands, tenements, or heritages:
- (d) On the production of any such documents of title, the assessor may make his assessment according to the rent therein reserved, or if they are not produced, upon the rent reserved as disclosed in the written note, if he is satisfied that there was no other valuable consideration:
- (e) If no written note is delivered, or if the assessor is not satisfied therewith, the assessor shall make an assessment in accordance with the provisions of this Act:
- (f) If a farm, occupied by any such tenant, is distant more than ten miles from the dwelling-house of the assessor, the tenant may leave his lease or written note with the nearest justice of the peace, or with the minister of the parish in which the farm is situate, and the justice or minister, as the case may be, shall show the lease or note of the rent to the assessor when required.

(b) In the case of an assessment upon any house or building (except a farmhouse or building included with lands in assessment), the amount of the assessment shall, for the purposes of collection, be reduced—

(i) Where the owner is occupier or chargeable as landlord, or where a tenant is occupier and the landlord undertook to bear the cost of repairs, by a sum equal to one-sixth part of that amount; and

(ii) Where a tenant is occupier and undertook to bear the cost of repairs, by such a sum, not exceeding one-sixth part of that amount, as may be necessary to reduce it to the amount of rent payable by him.

(2) Where the amount of the assessment in the case of lands (inclusive of the farmhouse and other buildings) is more than one-eighth, and in the case of any house or building (except a farmhouse or building included with lands in assessment) is more than one-sixth below the rent, after deducting from such rent any outgoing which should by law be deducted in making the assessment, this rule shall not apply.

8.—(1) If the owner of any land or houses to which this rule applies shows that the cost to him of maintenance, repairs, insurance, and management, according to the average of the preceding five years, has exceeded, in the case of land, one-eighth part of the annual value of the land as adopted under this Schedule, and, in the case of houses, one-sixth part of that value, he shall be entitled in addition to any reduction of the assessment for the purposes of collection, on making a claim for the purpose, to repayment of the amount of the tax on the excess.

(2) For the purposes of this rule, the term "maintenance" shall include the replacement of farmhouses, farm buildings, cottages, fences, and other works where the replacement is necessary to maintain the existing rent.

Schedule A.
No. V.

(3) This rule shall apply to any land (inclusive of farmhouses and other buildings, if any) the assessment on which is reduced for the purpose of collection, and to any house the annual value of which, as adopted under this Schedule, does not exceed twelve pounds, and the assessment on which is so reduced.

(4) In comparing, for the purpose of this rule, the cost of maintenance, repairs, insurance, and management of any land or houses with the annual value of the land or houses, the total cost of the maintenance, repairs, insurance and management on any land managed as one estate, or of any houses on any such land, shall be compared with the total annual value of the land or houses, as the case may be.

(5) All the provisions of this Act which relate to claims for exemption, abatement, or relief, or the proof to be given with respect to those claims, shall apply to claims for repayment under this rule and the proof to be given with respect to those claims :

Provided that if the owner of any land or house makes and delivers to the surveyor of any district in which the land or house is wholly or partly situate a declaration as to the cost to him of maintenance, repairs, insurance, and management, and the surveyor is satisfied as to the correctness of the declaration, the amount of the allowance to which the owner is entitled under this rule shall be certified by the surveyor, and repayment shall thereupon be made in accordance with his certificate.

(6) In computing the five-year average for the purposes of this rule, the year shall be taken to be the year ending on the thirty-first day of March, or such other date as may be adopted by the owner of the land or houses with the consent of the surveyor of the district, and the five preceding years shall be taken to be those preceding the commencement of the year for which the tax in respect of which a claim for repayment is made is charged.

9.—(1) Where land has been demised at a reserved rent, without fine or other sum paid or contracted for in lieu of a reserved rent, and loss has been sustained on the growing crops or stock on the lands, or the lands or any part of them have been rendered incapable of cultivation for any year, by reason of flood or tempest, the general commissioners for the division in which the lands are situate, on proof to them that the owner has, in consideration of any such loss, allowed or agreed to allow, to the tenant an abatement of the whole or any part of the rent reserved or payable for any year of the term, may in like proportion make an abatement in the assessment under this Schedule for the year for which the abatement of rent has been made, and discharge therefrom the corresponding proportion of tax.

(2) Where any such loss is sustained on lands in the occupation of the owner, the commissioners may, on proof of the loss, make the like abatement and discharge of tax under this Schedule as might have been made if the land had been demised to a tenant, and the owner had made such abatement of rent proportionate to the loss sustained as the general commissioners consider would or ought to have been made in respect of such loss.

10. A person who—

- (a) makes any false claim for an abatement under rule 9, or
- (b) is guilty of any fraud or contrivance in making any such claim, or obtaining any such abatement; or

Tax under this Schedule shall be charged on all lands, tenements and hereditaments, whether occupied at the time of assessment or not, but if any house is or becomes unoccupied for the year or for part of the year of assessment, the tax shall not be levied thereon during the period while it is so unoccupied, and the general commissioners, on proof of the period during which the house was unoccupied, shall upon appeal discharge the tax in respect of that period.

5. If, after the making of an assessment, the lands are divided into two or more distinct occupations, the general commissioners, on the application of the persons respectively interested, shall determine what proportion of the tax shall be paid or borne by each occupier, and the amount apportioned shall be collected and levied in like manner as if it had been an original assessment.

*6. In respect of any compositions, rents, or other payments in lieu of tithes the commissioners may, if they think fit—

(a) charge the occupiers of the lands from which the tithes arise; or

(b) charge the respective persons liable to make any such payments; and

(c) direct notices to be delivered to any such persons respectively for the purpose of obtaining returns of any such payments, and the like provisions and penalties shall apply as in the case of statements to be delivered of the annual value of lands.

Schedule A.

9.—(1) The landlord or immediate lessor of any lands, houses, or buildings may, if the general commissioners think fit, be assessed and charged as if he were the occupier thereof, for any year of assessment in which a request in writing to that effect is received from him and for subsequent years until he shall by notice in writing cancel such request.

(2) Any such request or notice shall be delivered personally or be sent by post to the clerk to the general commissioners on or before the thirty-first day of July in the year for which it is first to take effect.

(3) The tax so charged upon the landlord or immediate lessor may be recovered from him in the same manner as any other income tax is recoverable, but this provision shall not prejudice the right to recover the same, if necessary, by distraint upon the premises or property in respect of which the charge was made, in the same way as if the charge had been made upon the occupier for the time being.

13.—(1) Any mortgagee or creditor in any heritable bond or wadset, in possession of the lands, tenements, hereditaments, or heritages mortgaged or secured, if in actual occupation of the same, shall be assessed and charged as an occupier, and if not in actual occupation, shall be liable to the like deduction as any landlord.

(2) In any settlement of accounts between such mortgagee or other creditor and the mortgagor or debtor, tax payable on interest due in respect of the mortgage or debt shall be allowed as money received on account of interest.

(2) Where the trade, profession, employment, or vocation has been set up and commenced within the said period of three years, the computation shall be made on the average of the profits or gains for one year from the period of the first setting up of the same, and where it has been set up and commenced within the year of assessment, the computation shall be made according to the rules applicable to Case VI.

2.—(1) Weekly wage-earners shall be assessed and charged to tax in respect of their wages in each quarter of the year instead of in the whole year, and shall in all cases be assessed and charged in respect of the actual amount of their wages for that quarter, and as respects any such assessment and charge and the collection of the tax the provisions of this Act shall have effect as if tax were charged for each quarter instead of for the year.

(2) This rule applies only to weekly wage-earners employed by way of manual labour in respect of the wages arising from that employment, and does not apply to persons employed as clerks, typists, draftsmen, or in any other similar capacity.

Schedule D.
Cases I. and
II.

(3) If any question arises whether any person is a person to whom this rule applies, that question shall be determined jointly by the Commissioners of Inland Revenue and the general commissioners, and their determination shall be final and conclusive on the question.

3. In computing the amount of the profits or gains to be charged, no sum shall be deducted in respect of—

- (a) any disbursements or expenses, not being money wholly and exclusively laid out or expended for the purposes of the trade, profession, employment, or vocation :
- (b) any disbursements or expenses of maintenance of the parties, their families or establishments or any sums expended for any other domestic or private purposes distinct from the purposes of such trade, profession, employment or vocation :
- (c) the rent or annual value of any dwelling-house or domestic offices or any part thereof, except such part thereof as is used for the purposes of the trade or profession : Provided that where any such part is so used, the sum so deducted shall be such as may be determined by the commissioners, and shall not exceed two-thirds of the annual value or of the rent bonâ fide paid for the said dwelling-house or offices :
- (d) any sum expended for repairs of premises occupied, or for the supply, repairs, or alterations of any implements, utensils, or articles employed for the purposes of the trade, profession, employment or vocation, beyond the sum usually expended for those purposes according to an average of three years preceding the year of assessment :
- (e) any loss not connected with or arising out of the trade, profession, employment or vocation :
- (f) any capital withdrawn from, or any sum employed or intended to be employed as capital in such trade, profession, employment or vocation :
- (g) any capital employed in improvements of premises occupied for the purposes of the trade, profession, employment or vocation :
- (h) any interest which might have been made if any such sums as aforesaid had been laid out at interest :
- (i) any debts, except bad debts proved to be such to the satisfaction of the commissioners and doubtful debts to the extent that they are respectively estimated to be bad. In the case of the bankruptcy or insolvency of a debtor, the amount which may reasonably be expected to be received on any such debt shall be deemed to be the value thereof :
- (j) any average loss beyond the actual amount of loss after adjustment :
- (k) any sum recoverable under an insurance or contract of indemnity :
- (l) any annual interest, or any annuity, or other annual payment payable out of the profits or gains :

4.—(1) Where any person has paid excess profits duty, the amount so paid shall be allowed as a deduction in computing the profits or gains of the year which included the end of the accounting period in respect of which the excess profits duty has been paid ; but where any person has received repayment of any amount previously paid by him by way of excess profits duty, the amount repaid shall be treated as profit for the year in which the repayment is received : Schedule D.

Cases I. and II.

Provided that any excess profits duty which becomes chargeable by virtue only of the provisions of the Finance Act, 1918, relating to profits arising from the sale of trading stock otherwise than in the ordinary course of trade, shall not be deemed to be excess profits duty for the purposes of this rule. 8 & 9 Geo. 5.
c. 151.

(2) The payment of excess profits duty shall not be deemed to be a specific cause for the purpose of rule 3 of the miscellaneous rules applicable to this Schedule.

(3) Where in any year of assessment the profits or gains from which a deduction may be made under this rule come into computation, but owing to the time at which the amount of the excess profits duty became ascertained it was impracticable to give effect to the deduction when assessing income tax, the amount by which that tax would have been reduced if effect had been given to the deduction shall be deducted from the amount payable for excess profits duty or, if there is no excess profits duty, shall be repaid to the taxpayer.

(4) This rule shall apply to sums actually paid in respect of munitions Exchequer payments as it applies to excess profits duty, except that the relief to the taxpayer under the last preceding paragraph of this rule shall in all cases be given by means of repayment and not by deduction.

(5) Any excess profits duty and any munitions Exchequer payments which under the provisions contained in section forty-eight of the Finance Act, 1916 (which provides for the adjustments of excess profits duty and munitions Exchequer payments in the case of controlled establishments), are remitted for the purpose of collection, shall not be deemed to have been paid for the purposes of this rule. 6 & 7 Geo. 5.
c. 24.

(6) The expression "munitions Exchequer payments" means any sums paid or payable into the Exchequer under section four of the Munitions of War Act, 1915, on account of the excess of the net profits of a controlled establishment. 5 & 6 Geo. 5.
c. 54.

5.—(1) The computation of tax shall be made exclusive of the profits or gains arising from lands, tenements, hereditaments, or heritages occupied for the purpose of the trade or profession :

Provided that where any lands, tenements, hereditaments, or other premises of whatsoever description used for the purpose of any trade, profession, employment, or vocation, are situate outside the United Kingdom, no deduction or set-off shall, in estimating the amount of annual profits or gains arising or accruing from that trade, profession, employment, or vocation, in any manner be allowed on account or in respect of the annual value of those premises

(2) Where, in estimating the amount of annual profits or gains arising or accruing from any trade, profession, employment, or vocation and chargeable to tax under this Schedule, any sum is deducted on account of the annual value of the premises used for the purpose of such trade, profession, employment, or vocation, the sum so deducted shall not exceed the amount of the assessment of the premises for the purpose of tax under Schedule A as reduced for the purpose of collection :

Provided that this provision shall not apply in the case of any premises being mills, factories or other similar premises.

Schedule D.
Cases I. and
II.

6.—(1) In charging the profits or gains of a trade under this Schedule, such deduction may be allowed as the commissioners having jurisdiction in the matter may consider just and reasonable, as representing the diminished value by reason of wear and tear during the year of any machinery or plant used for the purposes of the trade and belonging to the person by whom it is carried on.

(2) Where machinery or plant is let to the person by whom the trade is carried on, on the terms of his being bound to maintain the same and deliver it over in good condition at the end of the lease, the machinery or plant shall be deemed to belong to that person for the purpose of this rule.

(3) Where full effect cannot be given to any such deduction in any year owing to there being no profits or gains chargeable for that year, or owing to the profits or gains chargeable being less than the deduction, the deduction or part of the deduction to which effect has not been given, as the case may be, shall, for the purpose of making the assessment for the following year, be added to the amount of the deduction for wear and tear for that year, and deemed to be part of that deduction, or, if there is no such deduction for that year, be deemed to be the deduction for that year, and so on for succeeding years.

(4) Any claim in respect of the aforesaid deduction shall be included in the annual statement required to be delivered under this Act of the profits or gains of the trade for which the machinery or plant is used, and the additional commissioners, in assessing those profits or gains, shall make such allowance in respect thereof as they think just and reasonable.

(5) Where machinery or plant is let upon such terms that the burden of maintaining and restoring it falls upon the lessor, he shall be entitled, on presenting a claim to the general or special commissioners, to have repaid to him such a portion of the sum assessed and charged in respect of the machinery or plant, and deducted by the lessee on payment of the rent, as shall represent the tax upon an amount which the commissioners consider just and reasonable as representing the diminished value by reason of wear and tear of the machinery or plant during the year.

No such claim shall be allowed unless made within twelve months after the expiration of the year of assessment.

(6) No deduction for wear and tear, or repayment on account of any such deduction, shall be allowed for any year if the deduction, when added to the deductions allowed on that account for any previous years to the person by whom the trade is carried on, will make the aggregate amount of the deductions exceed the actual cost to that person of the machinery or plant, including in that actual cost any expenditure in the nature of capital expenditure on the machinery or plant by way of renewal, improvement, or re-instatement.

(7) Where an application is made to the Commissioners of Inland Revenue for the alteration of the amount of any deduction for wear and tear, the Commissioners, unless they are of opinion that the application is frivolous or vexatious, shall refer the case to the Board of Referees, and that Board shall, if they are satisfied that the application is made by or on behalf of any considerable number of persons engaged in any class of trade or business, take the application into their consideration, and determine the deduction to be allowed.

In this rule the expression "Board of Referees" means any Board of Referees appointed for the purpose of Part III. of the Finance

(No. 2) Act, 1915, or, if there is no such Board, a Board of Referees to be appointed for the purpose of this rule by the Treasury.

Schedule D.
Cases I. and
II.

7. In estimating the profits or gains of any trade, manufacture, adventure, or concern in the nature of trade chargeable under this Schedule there shall be allowed to be deducted as expenses incurred in any year so much of any amount expended in that year in replacing any plant or machinery which has become obsolete as is equivalent to the cost of the plant or machinery replaced after deducting from that cost the total amount of any allowances which have at any time been made in estimating profits or gains as aforesaid on account of the wear and tear of that plant and machinery, and any sum realised by the sale of that machinery or plant.

8.—(1) Where a person charged or chargeable with tax in respect of any trade, profession or vocation which has been set up or commenced within the period of three years upon the average of which the profits or gains are to be taken, or within the year of assessment, proves at the end of the year of assessment to the satisfaction of the commissioners by whom the assessment has been or can be made that the actual profits or gains arising from the trade, profession or vocation in the year of assessment fall short of the profits or gains as computed in accordance with this Act, he shall be entitled to be charged on the actual amount of the profits or gains so arising, instead of on the amount of the profits or gains so computed, and, if he has paid the full amount of the tax on the profits or gains so computed, he shall be entitled to repayment of the amount overpaid.

(2) Where a trade, profession, or vocation is discontinued in any year, any person charged or chargeable with tax in respect thereof, shall be entitled to be charged on the actual amount of the profits or gains arising therefrom in that year, and shall also, if he proves to the satisfaction of the commissioners by whom the assessment has been or could have been made, that the total amount of the tax paid for the three previous years in respect of that trade, profession, or vocation exceeds the total amount which would have been paid if he had been assessed for each of those years on the actual amount of the profits or gains arising in each year, be entitled to repayment of the excess.

9.—(1) If a person charged under this Schedule ceases within the year of assessment to carry on the trade, profession, or vocation in respect of which the assessment is made, and is succeeded therein by another person, the surveyor shall, within four months from the fifth day of April next after any such change, certify to the general commissioners for the division in which the assessment is made the particulars thereof, and the full name and residence of the person charged and of his successor and the date of the change, if the same be known to the surveyor.

(2) On receipt of the certificate the commissioners shall cause notice to be given to the respective persons of a meeting of the commissioners to consider it, and after examination of the said persons, if they attend, or on other satisfactory proof of the facts, the commissioners shall adjust the assessment by charging the successor with a fair proportion thereof from the time of his succeeding to the trade, profession, or vocation, and relieving the person originally charged from a like amount.

(3) The determination of the commissioners on any such certificate shall be final, and the sum apportioned to each such person shall be

Schedule D.
Cases I. and

recoverable from him in like manner as if he had been charged under the original assessment.

(4) If either of the said persons has paid in respect of an assessment so certified more than the proportion which appears by the determination of the commissioners to be chargeable on him, the amount overpaid shall, when recovered from the person liable, be paid to the person by whom the overpayment was made.

10.—(1) Where a trade or profession is carried on by two or more persons jointly, the tax in respect thereof shall be computed and stated jointly and in one sum, and shall be separate and distinct from any other tax chargeable on those persons or any of them, and a joint assessment shall be made in the partnership name.

(2) The precedent partner, that is to say, the partner who, being resident in the United Kingdom—

- (i) is first named in the agreement of partnership; or
- (ii) if there be no agreement, is named singly or with precedence to the other partners in the usual name of the firm: or
- (iii) is the precedent acting partner, if the person named with precedence is not an acting partner; shall make and deliver a statement of the profits or gains of such trade or profession, on behalf of himself and the other partners, and declare therein the names and residences of the other partners, under the penalty prescribed by this Act for default in delivering a statement.

(3) Where no partner is resident in the United Kingdom the statement shall be made and delivered by the agent, manager, or factor of the firm resident in the United Kingdom.

(4) Any other partner may, if a statement has been delivered as aforesaid, notify the fact that he is a partner together with his name and place of abode, without returning the amount of tax payable in respect of the partnership, but the respective commissioners may, if they think fit, require from every partner a like statement and the like information and evidence, as they are entitled to require from the precedent partner.

11. If within the year of assessment or the period of average upon which the assessment is to be based a change occurs in a partnership of persons engaged in any trade or profession, by reason of death, or of dissolution of the partnership as to all or any of the partners, or by the admission of a new partner, or if any person succeeds to a trade or profession, the tax payable in respect of the partnership, or any of the partners, or of the person so succeeding shall be computed according to the profits or gains of the trade or profession during the respective periods prescribed by this Act, notwithstanding the change or succession, unless the partners or the person succeeding to the trade or profession prove to the satisfaction of the commissioners that the profits or gains have fallen or will fall short from some specific cause, to be alleged to them, since such change or succession took place, or by reason thereof.

12.—(1) Where any trade or business is carried on by two or more persons in partnership, and the control and management of such trade or business is situate abroad, the trade or business shall be deemed to be carried on by persons resident outside the United Kingdom, and the said partnership shall be deemed to reside outside the United Kingdom, notwithstanding the fact that some of the members of the said partnership are resident in the United Kingdom and that some of the trading operations of the said partnership are conducted within the United Kingdom. Schedule D.

Cases I. and II.

(2) Where any part of the trade or business of a partnership firm whose management and control is situate abroad consists of trading operations within the United Kingdom, the said firm shall be chargeable in respect of the profits of such trading operations within the United Kingdom to the same extent as, and no further than, a person resident abroad is chargeable in respect of trading operations by him within the United Kingdom, notwithstanding the fact that one or more of the members of the said firm are resident in the United Kingdom :

Provided that for the purpose of charging any such firm in respect of the profits of the said trading operations within the United Kingdom, an assessment may be made on the said firm in respect of the said profits in the name of any partner resident in the United Kingdom.

13. A person who carries on, either solely or in partnership, two or more distinct trades the profits of which are chargeable under the rules of this Schedule, may deduct from or set off against the profits as computed under this Act in respect of one or more such trades, the loss so computed sustained in any other such trade, and may make separate statements as to each such trade.

14. Any bank which has obtained relief from tax under Schedule C by reason of the provisions of rule 3 of the general rules applicable to Schedule C in respect of the interest on any securities representing subscriptions of the bank to a war loan shall include the amount of any such interest in the computation of its profits or gains for the purpose of assessment under Case I. of this Schedule.

15.—(1) Where an assurance company carries on life assurance business in conjunction with assurance business of any other class, the life assurance business of the company shall for the purposes of this Act be treated as a separate business from any other class of business carried on by the company.

(2) In ascertaining whether an assurance company has sustained a loss in respect of its life assurance business for the purpose of setting off such loss against the profits of any other business carried on by the company, or for the purpose of obtaining an adjustment of its liability by reference to the loss and to the aggregate amount of its income under the provisions contained in this Act, any income of the company derived from the investments of its life assurance fund shall be treated as part of the profits of the company acquired in that business.

16. Every statement of profits to be charged under this Schedule which is made by any person—

- (i) on his own account; or
- (ii) on account of some other person for whom he is chargeable, or who is chargeable in his name, shall include every source of income so chargeable, and a person shall be chargeable in respect of the whole of the tax so chargeable in one and the same division and by the same commissioners :

Provided that where the same person is engaged in different partnerships or in different trades in different places, a separate assessment and charge shall be made in respect of each concern at the place where, if singly carried on, it would be assessed and charged under the provisions of this Act.

Schedule D.
Cases I. and
II.

17. Where a person delivers a statement of profits as aforesaid on behalf of some other person, or of a body of persons the statement shall be delivered in the division where the person delivering the statement or the body of persons respectively would be assessable and chargeable if acting on his or their own behalf.

Rules applicable to Case III.

Case III.

1. The tax shall extend to—

- (a) any interest of money, whether yearly or otherwise, or any annuity, or other annual payment, whether such payment is payable within or out of the United Kingdom, either as a charge on any property of the person paying the same by virtue of any deed or will or otherwise, or as a reservation thereout, or as a personal debt or obligation by virtue of any contract, or whether the same is received and payable half-yearly or at any shorter or more distant periods,
- (b) all discounts;
- (c) profits on securities bearing interest payable out of the public revenue other than such as are charged under Schedule C;
- (d) interest, annuities, dividends and shares of annuities payable out of any public revenue where the half-yearly payments in respect thereof do not exceed fifty shillings and are not chargeable under Schedule C;
- (e) interest paid or credited in full without deduction of tax by any savings bank to any depositor;
- (f) interest on any Exchequer bonds issued under the authority of the Treasury during the continuance of the present war and a period of six months thereafter and on any securities issued under the War Loan Acts, 1914 to 1917, or any Act amending those Acts, in cases where such interest is paid without deduction of tax.

2. The tax shall be computed in each case on the full amount arising within the year ending on that day of the year preceding the year of assessment on which the accounts are usually made up, or on the fifth day of April preceding the year of assessment, and shall be paid on the actual amount as aforesaid without any deduction.

3.—(1) Where an assurance company not having its head office in the United Kingdom carries on life assurance business through any branch or agency in the United Kingdom, any income of the company from the investments of its life assurance fund (excluding the annuity fund, if any), wherever received, shall, to the extent provided in this rule, be deemed to be profits comprised in this Schedule and shall be charged under this Case.

(2) Such portion only of the income from the investments of the life assurance fund for the year preceding the year of assessment shall be so charged as bears the same proportion to the total income from those investments as the amount of premiums received in that year from policy holders resident in the United Kingdom and from policy holders resident abroad whose proposals were made to the company at or through its office or agency in the United Kingdom bears to the total amount of the premiums received by the company:

Provided that in the case of an assurance company having its head office in any British possession, the Commissioners of Inland Revenue may, by regulation, substitute some basis other than that herein prescribed for the purpose of ascertaining the portion of the income from investments to be so charged as being income derived from business carried on in the United Kingdom. Schedule D.

Case III.

(3) Every such charge shall be made by the special commissioners as though the company under the provisions of this Act had required the proceedings relating to the charge to be had and taken before those commissioners.

(4) Where a company has already been charged to tax, by deduction or otherwise, in respect of its life assurance business, to an amount equal to or exceeding the charge under this rule, no further charge shall be made under this rule, and where a company has already been so charged, but to a less amount, the charge shall be proportionately reduced.

4. If the commissioners find that lands which have been charged under Schedule B on the assessable value, and which are occupied by a dealer in cattle or a dealer in or a seller of milk, are insufficient for the keep of the cattle brought on to the lands, so that the assessable value affords no just estimate of the profits, they may require a statement of the profits to be delivered, and charge such further sum thereon as, together with the charge under Schedule B, will make up the full sum wherewith the dealer or seller ought to be charged in respect of the like amount of profits charged according to rule 2 of the rules applicable to this Case.

Tax under this Schedule shall be annually charged on every person having or exercising an office or employment of profit mentioned in this Schedule, or to whom any annuity, pension, or stipend, as described in this Schedule, is payable, in respect of all salaries, fees, wages, perquisites or profits whatsoever therefrom for the year of assessment, except as otherwise provided, after deducting the amount of duties or other sums payable or chargeable on the same by virtue of any Act of Parliament, where the same have been really and bonâ fide paid and borne by the party to be charged.

2. Every assessment shall be made for one year, and the tax in respect thereof shall be levied for that year without any new assessment, notwithstanding any change in the holder of any office or employment; but if, during the year of assessment, any person chargeable quits the office or employment, or dies, he, or his executors or administrators, respectively, shall be liable for tax in respect of the period during which he held or exercised the office or employment, and any successor shall in like manner be liable in respect of the period during which he has held or exercised the same.

3. If an annuity, pension, or stipend ceases within the year of assessment, the assessment thereon shall be discharged as from the date of cessation.

4.—(1) Perquisites may be estimated either on the profits of the preceding year, or on the average for one year of the amount of the profits thereof in the three preceding years.

(2) In any such case the preceding year or years shall be taken to end on the fifth day of April, or on the day of each year on which the accounts of such profits have been usually made up.

(3) Perquisites shall be deemed to be such profits as arise in the course of exercising an office or employment from fees or other emoluments.

5. If at any time, either during the year of assessment or in respect of that year, a person becomes entitled to any additional salary, fees, or emoluments beyond the amount for which an assessment has been made upon him, or for which at the commencement of that year he was liable to be charged, an additional assessment shall, as often as the case may require, be made upon him in respect of any such additional salary, fees or emoluments, so that he may be charged in respect of the full amount of his salary, fees or emoluments for that year.

Schedule E.
Rules.

6. The tax shall be paid in respect of all the public offices and employments of profit within the United Kingdom or by the officers hereinafter respectively described, namely—

- (a) offices belonging to either House of Parliament;
- (b) offices belonging to any court of justice in the United Kingdom, whether civil, criminal, ecclesiastical, naval, military, or air-force;
- (c) public offices under the civil government of the Crown, or in any county palatine, or the Duchy of Cornwall;
- (d) officers in His Majesty's navy;
- (e) commissioned officers in His Majesty's military forces;
- (f) commissioned officers in His Majesty's air force;
- (g) offices or employments of profit under any ecclesiastical body;
- (h) offices or employments of profit under any company or society, whether corporate or not corporate;
- (i) offices or employments of profit under any public institution, or on any public foundation of whatever nature, or for whatever purpose established;
- (j) offices or employments of profit under any public corporation or local authority, or under any trustees or guardians of any public funds, tolls, or duties;
- (k) all other public offices, or employments of profit which are of a public nature.

7.—(1) Tax in respect of offices and employments of profit held under a railway company shall be charged by the special commissioners, who shall notify to the secretary or other officer of the company the particulars of the assessments.

(2) Any such assessment shall be deemed to be and shall be an assessment upon the company, and the tax in respect thereof shall be paid, collected, and levied accordingly, and the company or the secretary or other officer may deduct out of the emoluments of the holder of any such office or employment of profit the tax so charged.

8. In estimating the tax payable, all official deductions and payments made on receipt of the emoluments of any office or employment of profit, or on receipt of any annuity, pension, or stipend, or on passing the accounts of the office, may be deducted if a due account thereof is rendered to the commissioners and proved to their satisfaction.

9. If the holder of an office or employment of profit is necessarily obliged to incur and defray out of the emoluments thereof the expenses of travelling in the performance of the duties of the office or employment, or of keeping and maintaining a horse to enable him to perform the same, or otherwise to expend money wholly, exclusively, and necessarily in the performance of the said duties, there may be deducted from the emoluments to be assessed the expenses so necessarily incurred and defrayed.

10. Where the Treasury are satisfied with respect to any class of persons in receipt of any salary, fees, or emoluments payable out of the public revenue that such persons are obliged to lay out and expend money wholly, exclusively, and necessarily in the performance of the duties in respect of which such salary, fees, or emoluments are payable, the Treasury may fix such sum, as in their opinion represents a fair equivalent of the average annual amount laid out and expended as aforesaid by persons of that class, and in charging the tax on the said salary, fees, or emoluments, there shall be deducted from the amount thereof the sums so fixed by the Treasury :

Schedule E
Rules.

Provided that if any person would, but for the provisions of this rule, be entitled to deduct a larger amount than the sum so fixed, that sum may be deducted instead of the sum so fixed.

11.—(1) Where any official pay is payable at a public office, or by any officer of the Royal household, or by a Crown receiver or paymaster, or by any agent employed in that behalf, the tax chargeable thereon shall be deducted out of the official pay, or out of any money which is payable on account of that official pay or any arrears thereof, and shall be applied in satisfaction of any such tax which has not been otherwise paid, and shall be paid to the Commissioners of Inland Revenue.

(2) If the tax payable is charged by the general commissioners in their respective divisions, they shall transmit an account of the amount of tax so charged to the office where the official pay is payable, in order that it may be there deducted.

(3) In this rule the expression "official pay" means any salary, fees, wages, perquisites, or other profits, or any annuity, pension, or stipend.

(4) Where an annuity or pension is payable out of any particular branch of the public revenue at the office of that branch, the commissioners acting for that department may charge the tax in respect of the same as if the annuity or pension were salary or wages payable thereout.

12. Where any emoluments chargeable under this Schedule do not arise as described in the last preceding rule, but arise from any other office or employment of profit, and are payable by any officer, receiver, or agent, any tax chargeable in respect thereof which has not been otherwise paid shall be deducted therefrom or from the arrears thereof and paid to the proper officer.

13.—(1) If either—

- (i) the tax in respect of any office or employment of profit cannot be deducted in the hands of the appropriate officer or of an agent for payment of the emoluments thereof, or
- (ii) the said emoluments have been paid over to the person entitled to them; and the person charged neglects or refuses to pay the tax, the commissioners for the offices concerned may, by writing under their hands and seals, certify the neglect or refusal, and the sum payable, to the general commissioners for the division comprising the parish in which the person charged resides.

(2) The said last-mentioned commissioners on receipt of the certificate shall, by warrant under their hands and seals, empower the respective collectors of the said tax under this Schedule, or the collectors of the parish where the person chargeable resides, to levy the tax in the same manner and with the like powers as other tax is leviable by them under this Act.

(3) The collectors shall execute the warrant in the manner prescribed by this Act and as if the person chargeable had been charged with tax in the parish where he resides, and the moneys recovered shall be paid over to the proper officer.

14.—(1) If an office or employment of profit chargeable under this Schedule is executed by deputy, the deputy, if he is in receipt of the profits thereof, shall pay the tax charged thereon, and deduct it out of the profits of the office or employment.

Schedule E.
Rules

(2) If the profits of any officer or officers are received by any other officer on his or their behalf, or as a fund to be divided among such officers, the officer receiving the same shall pay the tax charged thereon and deduct it out of the sums received before they are handed over or divided.

(3) In the case of non-payment of the tax, the said deputy or officer receiving the profits shall be liable to such distress as is prescribed by this Act against any person holding the office or employment, and to any other remedy and penalty herein provided.

15. Where deduction of tax is authorised to be made out of any sums, the deduction shall be made at such times in each year as the said sums are payable.

16. If any emoluments of any office or employment of profit, or any annuity, pension, or stipend charged under this Schedule are charged with a sum payable to another person, such portion of the tax shall be deducted from that sum as the tax thereon would amount unto, and that person, or any agent or receiver on his behalf, shall allow the deduction on receipt of the residue of the sum payable.

17. If a deputy, clerk, or other person is employed under the holder of an office or employment of profit, and his salary or wages are paid out of the emoluments thereof, the holder of the office may deduct out of the salary or wages payable by him such a portion of the tax charged on the emoluments of the office or employment as the tax on the said salary or wages would amount unto, and the deduction shall be allowed upon receipt of the residue of the salary or wages.

18.—(1) The tax shall be assessed and charged by the respective commissioners for all the offices in each department, in the place where the said commissioners execute their offices, although certain of the offices in the same department may be executed elsewhere.

(2) A person chargeable in respect of an office or employment of profit shall be deemed to exercise it at the head office of the department under which it is held, and shall be assessed and charged at that head office, although the duties of the office or employment are performed, or any profits thereof are payable elsewhere, whether within the United Kingdom or not.

(3) An office shall be deemed to belong to, and shall be charged by or under, the principal officers of the department by or under whom the appointment to the office is made, but if the appointment is made by an inferior officer of the department, such office shall be charged by the commissioners by whom that inferior officer is chargeable in respect of his own office :

Provided that an officer who holds an appointment under the Great Seal or Privy Seal of England or Scotland, or an appointment under the Royal Sign Manual, or an appointment under the Treasury but not exercised in the Treasury, shall be assessed and charged in that department in which his office is exercised.

(4) Nothing in this rule shall limit the right given by this Act to any other commissioners to assess and charge offices within their jurisdiction, although those offices may not be held under their appointment, or although the profits thereof may not be payable by them or by their order.

(5) Notwithstanding anything in this rule, a person may be assessed and charged under this Schedule by the commissioners acting for any parish in which he ordinarily resides.

Schedule E.
Rules.

GENERAL RULES APPLICABLE TO SCHEDULES A, B, C, D AND E. All Schedules:
Rules.

1. Every body of persons shall be chargeable to tax in like manner as any person is chargeable under the provisions of this Act.

2.—(1) In assessing the tax chargeable under any Schedule upon a clergyman or minister of any religious denomination, the following deductions may be made from any profits, fees or emoluments of his profession or vocation—

- (a) any sums of money paid or expenses incurred by him wholly, exclusively, and necessarily in the performance of his duty as a clergyman or minister;
- (b) such part of the rent (not exceeding one-eighth), as the commissioners by whom the assessment is made may allow, paid by him in respect of a dwelling-house any part of which is used mainly and substantially for the purposes of his duty as such clergyman or minister;

and where any such clergyman or minister is in the occupation of a dwelling-house, but pays no rent therefor, he shall for the purposes of the foregoing provision be deemed to pay a rent equal to the annual value of the dwelling-house as assessed to tax under Schedule A.

(2) If no such deduction has been made, a proportionate part of the tax paid by him shall be repaid to the clergyman or minister on proof to the commissioners that any sum has been expended as aforesaid.

3. Every British subject whose ordinary residence has been in the United Kingdom shall be assessed and charged to tax, notwithstanding that at the time the assessment or charge is made he may have left the United Kingdom, if he has so left the United Kingdom for the purpose only of occasional residence abroad, and shall be charged as a person actually residing in the United Kingdom upon the whole amount of his profits or gains, whether they arise from property in the United Kingdom or elsewhere, or from any allowance, annuity, or stipend (save as herein is excepted), or from any trade, profession, employment, or vocation in the United Kingdom or elsewhere.

4. The trustee, guardian, tutor, curator, or committee of any incapacitated person having the direction, control, or management of the property or concern of any such person, whether such person resides in the United Kingdom or not, shall be assessable and chargeable to tax in like manner and to the like amount as that person would be assessed and charged if he were not an incapacitated person.

5. A person not resident in the United Kingdom, whether a British subject or not, shall be assessable and chargeable in the name of any such trustee, guardian, tutor, curator, or committee, or of any factor, agent, receiver, branch, or manager, whether such factor, agent, receiver, branch, or manager has the receipt of the profits or gains or not, in like manner and to the like amount as such non-resident person would be assessed and charged if he were resident in the United Kingdom and in the actual receipt of such profits or gains.

6. A non-resident person shall be assessable and chargeable in respect of any profits or gains arising, whether directly or indirectly,

All Schedules. through or from any factorship, agency, receivership, branch, or Rules. management, and shall be so assessable and chargeable in the name of the factor, agent, receiver, branch, or manager.

7. Where a non-resident person, not being a British subject or a British, Indian, Dominion, or Colonial firm or company, or branch thereof, carries on business with a resident person, and it appears to the commissioners by whom the assessment is made that, owing to the close connection between the resident person and the non-resident person, and to the substantial control exercised by the non-resident person over the resident person, the course of business between those persons can be so arranged, and is so arranged, that the business done by the resident person in pursuance of his connection with the non-resident person produces to the resident person either no profits or less than the ordinary profits which might be expected to arise from that business, the non-resident person shall be assessable and chargeable to tax in the name of the resident person as if the resident person were an agent of the non-resident person.

8. Where it appears to the commissioners by whom the assessment is made or, on any objection or appeal, to the general or special commissioners, that the true amount of the profits or gains of any non-resident person chargeable with tax in the name of a resident person cannot in any case be readily ascertained, the commissioners may, if they think fit, assess and charge the non-resident person on a percentage of the turnover of the business done by the non-resident person through or with the resident person in whose name he is chargeable as aforesaid, and in such case the provisions of this Act relating to the delivery of statements by persons acting on behalf of others shall extend so as to require returns to be given by the resident person of the business so done by the non-resident person through or with the resident person, in the same manner as statements are to be delivered by persons acting for incapacitated or non-resident persons of profits or gains to be charged.

9.—(1) The amount of percentage under the last preceding rule shall in each case be determined, having regard to the nature of the business, by the commissioners by whom the assessment on the percentage basis is made, subject, in the case of an assessment made by the additional commissioners, to objection or appeal to the general or special commissioners.

(2) If either the resident person or non-resident person is dissatisfied with the percentage determined either in the first instance or by the general or special commissioners on objection or appeal, he may, within four months of that determination, require the commissioners to refer the question of the percentage to a referee or board of referees to be appointed for the purpose by the Treasury, and the decision of the referee or board shall be final and conclusive.

10. Nothing in these rules shall render a non-resident person chargeable in the name of a broker or general commission agent, or in the name of an agent not being an authorised person carrying on the regular agency of the non-resident person or a person chargeable as if he were an agent in pursuance of these rules, in respect of profits or gains arising from sales or transactions carried out through such a broker or agent.

11. The fact that a non-resident person executes sales or carries out transactions with other non-residents in circumstances which would make him chargeable in pursuance of these rules in the name of a resident person shall not of itself make him chargeable in respect of profits arising from those sales or transactions. All Schedules.

Rules.

12. Where a non-resident person is chargeable to income tax in the name of any branch, manager, agent, factor or receiver in respect of any profits or gains arising from the sale of goods or produce manufactured or produced out of the United Kingdom by the non-resident person, the person in whose name the non-resident person is so chargeable may, if he thinks fit, apply to the commissioners by whom the assessment is made, or in case of an appeal to the general or special commissioners, to have the assessment to income tax in respect of those profits or gains made or amended on the basis of the profits which might reasonably be expected to have been earned by a merchant or, where the goods are retailed by or on behalf of the manufacturer or producer, by a retailer of the goods sold, who had bought from the manufacturer or producer direct, and on proof to the satisfaction of the commissioners concerned of the amount of the profits on the basis aforesaid, the assessment shall be made or amended accordingly.

13. The person who is chargeable in respect of an incapacitated person, or in whose name a non-resident person is chargeable, shall be answerable for all matters required to be done under this Act for the purpose of assessment and payment of tax.

14. Any person who has been charged under this Act in respect of any incapacitated or non-resident person as aforesaid may retain, out of money coming into his hands on behalf of any such person, so much thereof from time to time as is sufficient to pay the tax charged, and shall be indemnified for all such payments made in pursuance of this Act.

15.—(1) A receiver appointed by any court in the United Kingdom which has the direction and control of any property in respect of which tax is charged in accordance with the provisions of this Act shall be assessable and chargeable with tax in like manner and to the like amount as would be assessed and charged if the property were not under the direction and control of the court.

(2) Every such receiver shall be answerable for doing all matters and things required to be done under this Act for the purpose of assessment and payment of tax.

16. A married woman acting as a sole trader, or being entitled to any property or profits to her separate use, shall be assessable and chargeable to tax as if she were sole and unmarried :

Provided that—

(1) the profits of a married woman living with her husband shall be deemed the profits of the husband, and shall be assessed and charged in his name, and not in her name or the name of her trustee; and

(2) a married woman living in the United Kingdom separate from her husband, whether the husband be temporarily absent from her or from the United Kingdom or otherwise, who receives any allowance or remittance from property out of the United Kingdom, shall be assessed and charged as a feme sole if entitled thereto in her own right, and as the agent of the husband if she receives the same from or through him, or from his property, or on his credit.

All Schedules.
Rules.

17.—(1) If an application is made for the purpose in such manner and form as may be prescribed by the Commissioners of Inland Revenue, either by a husband or wife, within six months before the sixth day of May in any year of assessment, income tax for that year shall be assessed, charged and recovered on the income of the husband and on the income of the wife as if they were not married, and all the provisions of this Act with respect to the assessment, charge, and recovery of tax, and the penalties for failure to deliver a statement of profits or gains, shall, save as otherwise provided by this Act, apply as if they were not married.

(2) The Commissioners of Inland Revenue may require returns for the purposes of this rule to be made at any time, and the provisions of this Act relating to penalties for neglect or refusal to deliver, or for delay in delivering true and correct statements of profits or gains, shall, with the necessary modifications, apply in the case of the neglect or refusal to make, or wilful delay in making, any such return.

18. Where any person dies without having delivered a statement of all his profits or gains chargeable to tax with a view to an assessment thereon in due course, an assessment in respect of the profits or gains which arose or accrued to him before his death may be made at any time within the year of assessment, or within three years after the expiration thereof, upon his executors or administrators, and the amount of the tax thereon shall be a debt due from and payable out of his estate.

19.—(1) Where any yearly interest of money, annuity, or any other annual payment (whether payable within or out of the United Kingdom, either as a charge on any property of the person paying the same by virtue of any deed or will or otherwise, or as a reservation thereout, or as a personal debt or obligation by virtue of any contract, or whether payable half-yearly or at any shorter or more distant periods), is payable wholly out of profits or gains brought into charge to tax, no assessment shall be made upon the person entitled to such interest, annuity, or annual payment, but the whole of those profits or gains shall be assessed and charged with tax on the person liable to the interest, annuity, or annual payment, without distinguishing the same, and the person liable to make such payment, whether out of the profits or gains charged with tax or out of any annual payment liable to deduction, or from which a deduction has been made, shall be entitled, on making such payment, to deduct and retain thereout a sum representing the amount of the tax thereon at the rate or rates of tax in force during the period through which the said payment was accruing due.

The person to whom such payment is made shall allow such deduction upon the receipt of the residue of the same, and the person making such deduction shall be acquitted and discharged of so much money as is represented by the deduction, as if that sum had been actually paid.

(2) Where any royalty, or other sum, is paid in respect of the user of a patent, wholly out of profits or gains brought into charge to tax, the person paying the royalty or sum shall be entitled, on making the payment, to deduct and retain thereout a sum representing the amount of the tax thereon at the rate or rates of tax in force during the period through which the royalty or sum was accruing due.

20. The profits or gains to be charged on any body of persons shall be computed in accordance with the provisions of this Act on the full amount of the same before any dividend thereof is made in respect of any share, right or title thereto, and the body of persons paying such dividend shall be entitled to deduct the tax appropriate thereto. All Schedules Rules.

21.—(1) Upon payment of any interest of money, annuity, or other annual payment charged with tax under Schedule D, or of any royalty or other sum paid in respect of the user of a patent, not payable, or not wholly payable out of profits or gains brought into charge, the person by or through whom any such payment is made shall deduct thereout a sum representing the amount of the tax thereon at the rate of tax in force at the time of the payment.

(2) Any such person shall forthwith render an account to the Commissioners of Inland Revenue of the amount so deducted, or of the amount deducted out of so much of the interest, annuity, annual payment, royalty, or other sum respectively, as is not paid out of profits or gains brought into charge, as the case may be, and every such amount shall be a debt from him to the Crown and shall be recoverable as such; and the provisions contained in section two of the Stamp Duties Management Act, 1891, in relation to money in the hands of any person for stamp duty, shall apply to money deducted by any such person in respect of tax. 54 & 55 Vict c. 38.

(3) The amount of annuities which an assurance company carrying on the business of granting annuities is entitled, for the purposes of this rule, to treat as having been paid out of profits or gains brought into charge to tax, shall not exceed the amount of the taxed income of its annuity fund.

22.—(1) If a difference arises—

- (a) between tenant and landlord or any other persons with regard to the deduction on account of tax to be made from any annual sum; or
- (b) between the occupier for the time being and any former occupier of lands, tenements, hereditaments or heritages, his executors, administrators, or assigns, with regard to the proportion of tax to be paid or allowed by either of them respectively;

the general commissioners of the division shall settle the proportion of the payments or deductions to be made according to the provisions of this Act, and, in default of payment, shall levy the same as if the proportions settled by them had been charged upon the respective persons, and shall pay over the same to the collector or to the proper person, as the case may require.

(2) In any such case the determination of the general commissioners shall be final.

(3) In this rule "annual sum" means any interest, annuity, rent, rentcharge, fee-farm rent, rent-service, quitrent, feu duty, or other rent or annual payment.

23.—(1) A person who refuses to allow a deduction of tax authorised by this Act to be made out of any payment, shall forfeit the sum of fifty pounds.

(2) Every agreement for payment of interest, rent, or other annual payment in full without allowing any such deduction shall be void.

EDUCATION AUTHORITIES.

1. A local authority for the purposes of education (in this Act called the "education authority") shall be elected in and for each of the following areas (in this Act called "education areas"), that is to say, in and for—

(a) each of the burghs mentioned in the First Schedule to this Act (in this Act called the "scheduled burghs"); and

(b) every county, including every burgh situated therein not being one of the scheduled burghs.

2.—(1) For the purpose of such elections, the Secretary for Scotland shall, as soon as may be after the passing of this Act, by order divide each education area into electoral divisions, and in determining the boundaries thereof, he shall have regard, so far as may be, to the boundaries of wards in scheduled burghs, and of districts, burghs and parishes in counties. (2) The Secretary for Scotland shall also by order determine the number of members to be elected to each education authority, and shall apportion them among the electoral divisions of the education area. In making such determination and apportionment the Secretary for Scotland shall have regard to the population, area, and other circumstances of the scheduled burgh or county, as the case may be, and the electoral divisions thereof.

(3) Before making an order under this section, the Secretary for Scotland shall cause the proposed order to be published in such manner as to make the same known to all persons interested, and shall, after considering any objections and representations respecting the proposed order, and causing a local inquiry to be held if he sees fit to do so, thereafter make the order and cause the same to be forthwith published in the Edinburgh Gazette and in a newspaper circulating in the education area.

committees.

3.—(1) It shall be the duty of every education authority to prepare and submit to the Department for their approval a scheme or schemes for the constitution of committees (in this Act called “school management committees”) for the management of schools or groups of schools under their control throughout their education area.

Every such scheme shall contain provision—

- (a) for the due representation on each school management committee of the education authority and of the parents of the children attending the schools under the management of such committee; and
- (b) for the appointment thereto, on the nomination of the teachers engaged in the schools under the management of such committee, or, failing such nomination, directly, of at least one such teacher; and also
- (c) in the case of a school management committee having under its management one or more transferred schools, for the appointment thereto of at least one member in whose selection regard shall be had to the religious belief of the parents of the children attending such school or schools.

Further, in the case of a county, every such scheme shall have regard to the desirability of constituting separate school management committees for individual burghs and parishes, and shall provide for the appointment thereto, on the nomination of local bodies (including town and parish councils and at the first constitution outgoing school boards), or, failing such nomination, directly, of persons resident in the locality and otherwise qualified to represent local interests in school management.

(2) A school management committee shall, subject except as hereinafter provided to any regulations and restrictions made by the education authority, have all the powers and duties of that authority in regard to the general management and supervision of the school or group of schools, including attendance thereat:

Provided that in the case of a county a school management committee having under its management a secondary school shall have all the said powers and duties not subject to any such regulations or restrictions:

- (b) the acquisition or holding of land ;
- (c) the appointment, transfer, remuneration and dismissal of teachers ;
- (d) the appointment of bursars, and the exercise of the powers conferred by the section of this Act relating to power to facilitate attendance at secondary schools and other institutions ; and
- (e) the recognition, establishment, or discontinuance of intermediate or secondary schools or of centres of advanced technical instruction.

POWERS AND DUTIES OF EDUCATION AUTHORITIES.

4.—(1) It shall be lawful for an education authority, with a view to securing that no child or young person resident in their education area who is qualified for attendance at an intermediate or secondary school, and in their opinion formed after consideration of a report from the teachers concerned shows promise of profiting thereby, shall be debarred therefrom by reason of the expense involved, to grant assistance in the case of any such child or young person by payment of travelling expenses, or of fees, or of the cost of residence in a hostel, or of a bursary or maintenance allowance, or any combination of these forms of assistance, or otherwise, as the authority think fit. 5. It shall be lawful for the education authority of a county, as an ancillary means of promoting education, to make such provision of books by purchase or otherwise as they may think desirable, and to make the same available not only to the children and young persons attending schools or continuation classes in the county, but also to the adult population resident therein.

6.—(1) It shall be the duty of every education authority within twelve months after the appointed day to prepare and submit for the approval of the Department—

(3) Schemes prepared and submitted under this section shall include transferred schools.

Religious instruction.

7. Whereas it has been the custom in the public schools of Scotland to give instruction in religion to children whose parents did not object to the instruction so given, but with liberty to parents, without forfeiting any of the other advantages of the schools, to elect that their children should not receive such instruction, be it enacted that education authorities shall be at liberty to continue the said custom, subject to the provisions of

Provided that no payment shall be made under this section out of the education fund of any education area in respect of any child for whom it is shown to the satisfaction of the Department that accessible accommodation is available in a suitable school provided within that area, regard being had to all the circumstances, including the religious belief of his parents.

- (8) If it appears to an education authority that any young person of the age of fifteen years and upwards is neglecting or failing without reasonable excuse to comply with any such requirement of the authority, it shall be lawful for that authority after due warning to such young person and to his parent and employer (if any) to summon the young person, with or without his parent or employer, to appear before the authority at any meeting thereof, and to require from him or them every information and explanation respecting such neglect or failure ; and if such young person or his parent or employer, or some person on his or their behalf, either does not appear, or appears and does not satisfy the authority that there is reasonable excuse for such neglect or failure, it shall be lawful for the authority to order in writing that such young person shall comply with such requirement, or with such other requirement as to attendance as the authority may direct. - (14) If a young person over the age of sixteen or the parent of a young person under the age of sixteen represents in writing to the local education authority that he objects to any part of the instruction given in the continuation classes which the young person is required to attend, on the ground that it is contrary to his religious belief, or likely to give offence to his religious feelings, the obligation under this Act to attend those classes for the purpose of such instruction shall not apply to him, and the local education authority shall, if practicable, arrange for him to receive other instruction in lieu thereof or attend other classes :

computation of tithe rent-charge.

c. 37.

1.—(1) The sum which on or before the first day of January, nineteen hundred and twenty-six, becomes payable under the Tithe Acts, 1836 to 1891, in respect of any tithe rentcharge, shall be the sum payable in respect of that rentcharge as ascertained by the septennial average prices published under the Corn Returns Act, 1882, in the month of January, nineteen hundred and eighteen.

(2) The Board of Agriculture and Fisheries shall, after the twenty-fifth day of December in the year nineteen hundred and twenty-five, and in each succeeding year, compute in the same manner as the septennial average is directed to be computed under the Corn Returns Act, 1882, and shall publish in the London Gazette in the month of January following the average price of each sort of British corn for the preceding fifteen years, and the sum payable under the Tithe Acts, 1836 to 1891, in respect of any tithe rentcharge payable after the first day of January, nineteen hundred and twenty-six, shall be ascertained by the average prices so computed for the preceding fifteen years in substitution for the septennial average referred to in the Corn Returns Act, 1882.

2. A pension to a retired incumbent of a benefice, whether awarded before or after the passing of this Act, which under the Incumbents Resignation Act, 1871, Amendment Act, 1887, is variable shall from time to time vary with and be regulated by the average prices by which under this Act the sum payable in respect of any tithe rentcharge is ascertained.

Regulation of pension to retired incumbent.
50 & 51 Vict. c. 23.

3. A tithe rentcharge, notwithstanding that it exceeds twenty shillings, shall, on the application of the owner of the land charged therewith, and without the consent of the owner of the rentcharge, be directed by the Board of Agriculture and Fisheries to be redeemed under and in accordance with the Tithe Acts, 1836 to 1891, as amended by this Act, unless, owing to any exceptional circumstances, the Board otherwise direct.

Consideration for redemption

(2) An agreement made under this section may provide, and, in default of such agreement, on the application of the owner of the land or any part thereof, the Board of Agriculture and Fisheries for the purpose of the redemption of a rentcharge for the redemption of which an application is made on or before the first day of January nineteen hundred and twenty-one may, if they think fit, determine, that the consideration money shall be discharged by an annuity payable yearly or half-yearly for a period not exceeding fifty years, consisting of interest at a rate not exceeding five per centum per annum on the consideration money, and of such sum as would be sufficient if the periodical payments thereof were accumulated at compound interest at a rate not exceeding four per centum per annum to produce an amount equal to the consideration money at the end of the said period, and in any such case the Board shall by order direct the discharge of the consideration money by such an annuity as aforesaid and shall charge the land therewith, and the order shall contain such provisions for giving effect to the agreement or determination and for protecting the interests of persons

(3) An agreement by an owner of a rentcharge under this section shall not be valid—

1.—(1) The administrative expenses of any local or joint committee (including the expenses of any sub-committee thereof), to an amount approved by the Minister, shall, instead of being defrayed in manner provided by section one of the Naval and Military War Pensions, &c. (Administrative Expenses) Act, 1917 (hereinafter referred to as "the Administrative Expenses Act"), be as from the first day of January, nineteen hundred and nineteen, defrayed out of moneys provided by Parliament.

(2) Every local committee and every joint committee shall submit for the approval of the Minister an estimate of the administrative expenses proposed to be incurred by the committee for any prescribed period, and may from time to time submit to him supplementary estimates.

The Minister shall consider all estimates submitted to him for his approval under this section, and shall, if and so far as he considers any such estimate reasonable, approve the estimate.

(3) For the purposes of the provisions of this section the administrative expenses of a local or joint committee shall include travelling expenses and compensation for loss of remunerative time in the case of members of the committee or any sub-committee thereof calculated in accordance with regulations made by the Minister subject to the approval of the Treasury.

2.—(1) For the purpose of securing the proper exercise and performance in any area of the powers and duties assigned to local committees by the Naval and Military War Pensions, &c., Act, 1915 (hereinafter referred to as "the principal Act"), the Minister may by order do any of the following things:—

- (a) Require the council of any county or borough or urban district to frame a supplemental scheme to be approved by him for giving effect to any recommendation with respect to the amendment or modification of any scheme regulating the constitution of a committee, and in particular (without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing provision) as respects the council of a county for giving effect to any recommendation with respect to the division of the county into districts and the appointment of sub-committees for the districts:
- (b) Require a local committee to appoint sub-committees for any special parts of their area:
- (c) Require two or more local committees to appoint a joint committee, and determine the powers and duties which are to be delegated to any joint committee:
- (d) Provide, by the amalgamation of existing committees or otherwise, for the establishment of a single committee to act for any two or more of the areas for which committees are required to be or may be established under the principal Act, or for an area consisting of any such area or areas and any part of any such area or areas:

county, borough, or district, or by any other body or person, to exercise the power :

- (f) Where he is satisfied, after holding a public local inquiry, that any committee has been negligent in the exercise of its powers, or has made default in the performance of its duties, under the principal Act, suspend the committee for such time as may be specified in the order from the exercise of its functions or from the exercise of such of its functions as are specified in the order, or declare that the existing members of the committee have vacated their office :
- (g) Where he is satisfied that any member of a committee is habitually absent from meetings of the committee, or where a committee represent to him that it is desirable with a view to securing the efficient discharge of the committee's functions that some member of the committee should cease to be a member, declare that the member has vacated his office.

The Minister shall not make an order under any of the first five paragraphs of this subsection except after consultation with the councils or committees concerned.

(2) Any order made under this section may contain such supplemental and consequential provisions (including modifications and amendments of the principal Act or any Act amending that Act) as may be necessary for the purpose of giving full effect to the order, and in particular in the case of an order providing for the suspension of a committee may contain provisions for authorising any persons to exercise in the place of the committee, while it is so suspended or pending the appointment of a new committee, the functions of the committee or such of those functions as are specified in the order or for the appointment of new members of the committee, as the case may be.

Where an order made under this section contains provisions modifying or amending any statutory enactment, the order shall be laid before each House of Parliament forthwith, and if either of those Houses within the next subsequent twenty-one days on which that House has sat next after the order is laid before it, presents an Address to His Majesty against any of the modifications or amendments, His Majesty in Council may annul the order so far as it relates to the modifications or amendments against which the Address is presented, but without prejudice to the validity of anything previously done under the order.

(3) If in any case where the Minister has made an order under this section any council, committee, or other body, does not within such time, not being less than one month, as may be specified in the order, comply with the requirements of the order, the Minister may himself exercise in the place of the defaulting council, committee, or body the powers vested in the council, committee, or body in relation to the matter with respect to which it has made default.

3.—(1) Where a council has failed to discharge in due course any of its functions under subsection (2) of section one of the Administrative Expenses Act, the Minister may by order declaring that the council has so failed appoint some person to discharge those functions in the place of the council, and the person so appointed shall by virtue of the order have power to discharge those functions accordingly.

(2) A declaration contained in any such order to the effect that a council has so failed shall be conclusive evidence of the fact.

Minister to

4. Notwithstanding anything in the principal Act or in any scheme made under that Act, the Minister may appoint such persons as he thinks fit to be additional members of a committee, so, however, that the additional members appointed by the Minister shall not be officials of the Ministry nor at any time exceed one-tenth of the total number of the members (including additional members) of the committee, and that the Minister in making appointments shall have regard to the desirability of preserving the representative character of the committee.

BE it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :

Obligation to pay prescribed rates of wages for six months

1.—(1) During the period of six months from the passing of this Act, any person who employs in any trade or industry a workman of a class to which a prescribed rate of wages as defined by this Act is applicable shall pay wages to the workman at a rate not less than the prescribed rate applicable to workmen of that class, or such other rate as may be substituted for the prescribed rate by an award of the interim court of arbitration constituted as hereinafter mentioned, or as respects all or any of the workmen of that class by an agreement or settlement approved by the Minister of Labour, and if he fails to do so he shall be guilty of an offence under this Act and liable to a fine not exceeding five pounds for each day or part of a day during which the offence continues :

Provided that such a person shall not be liable to be convicted of an offence under this Act if he proves that he did not know and that he could not with reasonable diligence have ascertained that the wages paid were less than the wages required under this section to be paid.

(2) An agreement for the payment of wages in contravention of this section or for abstaining to exercise any right of enforcing payment of wages in accordance with this section shall be void.

(3) The Minister of Labour may by order exclude from the provisions of this section any particular trade or industry or branch of a trade or industry or workmen of any class or description mentioned in the order, but save as aforesaid this section shall apply to all trades and industries.

2.—(1) For the purposes of this Act the Minister of Labour Arbitrators may constitute an interim court of arbitration, consisting of persons representing employers, and persons representing workmen, and of independent persons from whom the chairman of the court and of every division thereof shall be selected.

(2) Any difference as to whether a workman is a workman of a class to which a prescribed rate of wages is applicable, or as to what is the prescribed rate of wages, or as to whether any rate should be substituted for the prescribed rate, or as to what is the substituted rate of wages, may be reported to the Minister of Labour by or on behalf of either of the parties to the difference, and the Minister shall thereupon consider the difference so reported and take any steps which seem to him expedient to promote a settlement of the difference, and where the Minister has failed to settle the difference by such steps as aforesaid he shall refer the matter for settlement to the interim court of arbitration, or, if in his opinion suitable means for settlement already exist in pursuance of an agreement made between employers and persons employed, for settlement in accordance with those means :

Provided that the Minister of Labour shall not refer for settlement in accordance with this section a difference as to whether any rate should be substituted for the prescribed rate unless he is satisfied that the report is made by or on behalf of a substantial proportion of the workmen to whom the prescribed rate in question is applicable, or by or on behalf of employers employing a substantial proportion of such workmen.

(3) Where an award determining or varying a rate has been so made by the interim court of arbitration, or an agreement or settlement for such purpose has been arrived at, the Minister of Labour may, on the advice of the interim court of arbitration, by order direct that the determination or variation effected by the award, agreement, or settlement shall be binding on all workmen to whom the prescribed rate in question is applicable and the employers of those workmen.

(4) The Minister of Labour may refer to the interim court of arbitration for advice any matter arising under this Act.

(5) The Arbitration Act, 1889, shall not apply to any 52 & 53 Vict.
c. 49. reference under the provisions of this Act, but the Minister may make, or authorise the interim court of arbitration to make, rules regulating the procedure of that court, and those regulations may provide for the court sitting in two or more divisions, and for enabling questions as to the interpretation of any award to be settled without any fresh report or reference.

(6) Where before the passing of this Act any matter has been referred for settlement under the Munitions of War Acts, 1915 to 1917, and has not at that date been settled by the person or persons to whom it has been so referred, the Minister of Labour may by order transfer the matter to the interim court of arbitration, and where any such matter has been so transferred the award of that court shall have effect as if the matter had been referred to the court under the foregoing provisions of this section.

(7) There shall be paid out of moneys provided by Parliament to any person being a member of the interim court of arbitration, and to any officers required in connection with that court, such remuneration and travelling or other expenses (including compensation for loss of time) as the Minister of Labour, with the approval of the Treasury, may determine, and there shall also be so paid any other expenses of the court to such an amount as may be sanctioned by the Treasury: Provided that the aggregate amount so expended shall not exceed thirty thousand pounds.

inquiry.

3.—(1) Any officer appointed by the Minister of Labour shall have power to enter at all reasonable times the premises of any establishment (other than a private dwelling-house not being a workshop) for the purpose of ascertaining whether the provisions of this Act are being observed as respects persons employed therein, and to make such examination and inquiry as may be necessary for any such purpose, and the owner of the establishment and any person engaged in the management or direction of the establishment shall furnish to such officer all such information, and shall produce for inspection all such wages books and other similar documents as the officer may reasonably require.

(2) If any person wilfully delays or obstructs an officer in the exercise of any powers under this Act or fails to give such information or produce such documents as aforesaid he shall be guilty of an offence under this Act and shall be liable to a fine not exceeding ten pounds.

(3) Every such officer shall be furnished with a certificate of his appointment and on applying for admission to any premises for the purposes of this section shall, if so required, produce his certificate.

Definition of prescribed rate of wages.

4.—(1) For the purposes of this Act the prescribed rate of wages shall be as follows:—

- (a) As respects a man or boy employed in any trade or industry or branch of a trade or industry in a district the prescribed rate shall be the recognised time rate or other basis for determining wages (with any allowances for overtime, night work, week-end or holidays when worked and additional war bonuses or war advances) generally applicable on the eleventh day of November nineteen hundred and eighteen to that class of workmen in that trade or industry or branch thereof in that district:
- (b) As respects a person employed in the sea service the prescribed rate shall be the rate payable on the said date to persons of the class to which that person belongs :

- (d) As respects a woman or girl employed in a trade or industry or branch of a trade or industry in a district on work the wages paid for which were on the said date subject to an agreement between employers employing a majority of women or girls engaged on that work in the trade or industry or branch thereof in the district and one or more trade unions, the prescribed rate shall be the time rate or other basis for determining wages (with any allowances for overtime, night work, week-end or holidays when worked and additional war bonuses or war advances) payable under or in consequence of the agreement :
- (e) As respects a woman or girl to whom neither of the last two paragraphs applies, the prescribed rate shall be the time rate or other basis for determining wages (with any allowances for overtime, night work, week-end or holidays when worked and additional war bonuses or war advances) paid on the said date by employers employing a majority of women or girls engaged on the same class of work in the trade or industry or branch thereof in the district in which she is employed, unless some other rate is fixed by the Minister of Labour on the advice of the interim court of arbitration in which case the rate so fixed shall be the prescribed rate :

Provided that—

- (i) Where a woman or girl is employed on work of a class which before the war was customarily done by men, the prescribed rate shall be the time rate or other basis for determining wages (with any allowances for overtime, night work, week-end, or holidays when worked and additional war bonuses or war advances) payable to women and girls employed on such work on the said date ; and

- (ii) where arbitration proceedings have been commenced before the passing of this Act, and the rate which is the prescribed rate as herein-before defined is or has been altered by an award in those proceedings taking effect after the said eleventh day of November, the rate as so altered shall, as from the date when the award takes effect, be the prescribed rate

Provided that proceedings against an employer may be instituted by or on behalf of a trade union and any party to any such proceedings may appear by an officer of a trade union or federation of employers to which he belongs.

(2) In any proceedings under this Act for failure to pay wages as required by this Act the tribunal may, whether there is a conviction or not, order the employer to pay in addition to the fine (if any) such sum as appears to the tribunal to be due to the workman employed on account of wages, the wages being calculated at the prescribed or such substituted rate as aforesaid, and if in any such proceedings it appears to the tribunal that any question arises as to whether there is a prescribed or substituted rate applicable to the class to which the workman belongs or as to what is the prescribed or substituted rate for that class, the tribunal shall report the question to the Minister of Labour, who shall proceed thereon as if it were a difference reported to him by one of the parties to the difference.
